By Mail, to Readers of a Single Class, Who Spend $12,000,000 Annually

The University Hatchet

Office: 2016 H Street
Phone: District 5170
Plant: NAtional 5838

Vol. 32, No. 8 — WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1935 — Entered as Second Class Matter at Post Office, Washington, D. C.

Senior Class Will Present Pole to School

Flying University Flag, Staff Will Be Erected Beside Present One

Senior Council Requests Representation on Student Council

A second pole in the yard, to fly the University flag beside the Stars and Stripes, will be erected by the Seniors as their traditional class gift. The Senior Council last week laid preliminary plans for a campaign to collect subscriptions from each member of the class to pay for the pole's purchase.

The pole now flying the American flag in the yard was erected with funds subscribed by members of last year's Senior Class and others whose names are engraved on a band of brass affixed to its base.

Endorses Plan

Provision for two poles was made last year prior to the erection of the first pole which was set off center to allow space for the second. President Marvin assisted in working out the original plan and is understood to have endorsed the plan of the present Senior Council.

The custom of flying both the American flag and that of the University is one used by a number of other colleges and universities.

The amount of the fund to be raised will approximate that of last year's campaign, according to Paul Moats, president of the Senior Council. The fund amounted to about $500 last year.

Committees Organized

Committees to raise the funds will be organized in each school and division of the University. Council representatives from each college will head the committees.

Names of donors will be inscribed on a metal plaque on the pole.

The Council at Thursday's meeting also drew up a petition signed by all but two absent members, Harry Connor and Cole McFarland, asking the Student Council why the Senior Council should not send a representative to the former body. The Student Council constitution, predicated on the theory that each student activity should be represented, does not provide for a representative from the Senior Council. It does, however, allow representation to the councils of the colleges and divisions.

Honor Group To Organize

Phi Beta Kappa Charter to Be Sought for G.W. Campus

Faculty members discussed possibilities of organizing a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honor society, at a meeting held last Thursday. Pres. Cloyd H. Marvin has approved the idea.

It was decided to take steps to apply for a charter, but meanwhile a local organization is to be set up.

Members of Phi Beta Kappa, students or faculty, have been asked by the administration to send their names, addresses and the name of the chapter to which they belong to George N. Henning, presiding officer in the Division of Romance Languages.

This decision comes as a culmination of efforts of various campus groups, including the Men's Independent Organization and Phi Eta Sigma, men's freshman scholastic honor society.

Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest Greek letter organization in the country. It was organized at William and Mary College in 1776.

Faculty To Hold Forum On War

Constantine Brown, feature writer on foreign affairs for the Evening Star, will conduct an open forum discussion before the Faculty Club on "How the United States Should Keep Out of War" Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Faculty Club building.

These open forums, which are under the direction of Dean William C. Johnstone of the Junior College, are an innovation this year. They are held on the third Monday of each month.

Dr. A. C. Christie of the faculty of the Medical School addressed the forum on socialized medicine last month. Dr. Christie is an expert in roentgenology, the study of x-rays.

Dreese, Tillema Elected Officers Of Association

Dr. Mitchell Dreese, associate professor of educational psychology, was elected president of the George Washington Chapter of the American Association of University Professors at a recent meeting of the group.

Dr. John A. Tillema, associate professor of political science, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

"Curly Flagg"

Betty Crawford

Theta Upsilon Omega Marks Lead Council

Phi Epsilon Pi Leads All Groups; Tau Epsilon Phi Third

Theta Upsilon Omega, with an index of 2.34, maintained the highest scholastic average of Interfraternity Council members last year, according to a report made public last week by Fred E. Nessel, registrar.

Phi Epsilon Pi, not a member of the Council, topped all the men's groups on campus with an index of 2.50.

Tau Epsilon Phi, not a Council Member, placed third, showing an average of 2.21. Kappa Alpha, with an index of 2.14; Tau Kappa Epsilon, 2.11, and Delta Tau Delta, 2.06, rated second, third and fourth respectively among Council fraternities.

Fraternity Grades Lower

Non-fraternity men maintained a better scholarship average than those affiliated with social groups. The index for all men was 2.03, with non-fraternity men rating 2.04 as compared with 1.97 for those affiliated with Greek letter groups.

The averages were computed according to the method adopted by the Conference of Deans and Advisers of Men, by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars, and by the National Interfraternity Conference.

Grading System

Grades, according to the method adopted, were weighed with numerical equivalents as follows: A—4, B—3, C—2, D—1, E—0, and F—minus 1. The grade of incomplete was not considered in any way in computing scholarship indices.

Band To Use Lights Friday

Bulbs Carried By Members to Form Letter Formations

Spelling out a welcome to the University of Tulsa in colored lights, the University Band will omit the customary marching letter formations between halves of the football game Friday night to inaugurate a system of letter outlines by lights.

Each member of the Band will carry a system of flin lights on his uniform. By swi[illegible] some of the lights off, letters will be made upon given signals of Drum Major Norman Warnock, who at present is also acting as captain.

Although these devices have been occasionally used before by college bands, their use has never been extensive and has been limited to night games. The local band will be the first in this section of the country to be so equipped.

Crawford, Coit Receive Roles In Production

Cue and Curtain Play Is Scheduled for the First Week of December

Technical Staffs Meet Tonight at Drama Office, Buildings

Betty Crawford and Hamilton Coit have been added to the cast of "She Loves Me Not," Cue and Curtain's first production, scheduled for the first week in December, according to Al Heckle, production manager. Miss Crawford will play the role of Curly Flagg and Coit will do Gus McNeal.

Curly Flagg is the Hilarity Club dancer whose arrival in the Princeton dormitory room of Paul Lawton starts the trouble which nearly gets Paul expelled. Gus McNeal is the press agent for Supersound Pictures, owned by the father of Paul's roommate, Buzz Jones, whose publicity stunts for his employer and Curly bring Curly national prominence and Paul and Buzz a lot of trouble.

The filling of these roles completes the cast. Rehearsals are in progress behind closed doors, the Drama Board announced last week.

There will be a general meeting of all technical staffs this evening at 8 o'clock at the Cue and Curtain Office in Building S.

As yet no definite decision has been reached as to what theatre Cue and Curtain will use for its productions this year. Several places are being investigated by the production staff and announcement of the place decided upon is expected next week.

Cherry Tree Photographing Starts Monday

Beauty Contest Will Use Pictures for 1935 Competition

Photographing for the 1935 Cherry Tree will begin Monday although the photographer has not been definitely selected, according to Henry W. Herzog, graduate manager of publications. The decision will probably be made today and sororities and fraternities will then be notified.

A beauty contest will be sponsored again this year, and the competition will be judged from photographs. The judges have not as yet been announced. Sororities having 80 per cent of their active and pledge membership photographed by Jan. 6, 1936, will be eligible to enter one candidate in the beauty contest. The photographer will also select for entry additional photographs, both of sorority and non-sorority women, to make the contest more representative.

Anyone who neglected to apply for a position on the yearbook may now submit his application, giving his staff preference and former experience, Helen Bunten, editor, stated. As vacancies on the present staff appear, these applicants will be selected to fill them.

Councils Meet

A meeting of the councils of the Junior College, Columbian College, and the School of Education will be held Thursday at 8:30 in the Sigma Kappa rooms, Ruth Critchfield, chairman of the student council election committee, announced.

Marvin to Speak

Pres. Cloyd H. Marvin will speak at a luncheon to be held at the Chevy Chase School for Girls this week. President Marvin visits the school annually.

Sir Willmott Lewis Heads List of 36 Speakers Scheduled for Third Press Convention Here Friday and Saturday

Howard Parrish, Ray Tucker Speak with Lewis at Banquet

2 Cups and 5 Keys To Be Awarded

Prof. Yeager Presides; Heller, Ennes Make Presentations

Three leading figures in the world of professional journalism will address the closing banquet of the Third Annual Press Convention sponsored by The Hatchet Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at Wesley Hall, 1703 K St.

Guests of honor will be:

Sir Wilmott Lewis, Washington Correspondent for The London Times and "the dean of Washington correspondents."

Sir Wilmott Lewis, Washington Correspondent for The London Times and "the dean of Washington correspondents."

Ray Tucker, Washington correspondent for the McClure Syndicate and formerly president of the National Press Club.

Howard Parrish, business manager of The Washington Daily News.

Howard Parrish, business manager of The Washington Daily News.

Prof. Willard H. Yeager, Depew professor of Public Speaking at the University, will act as toastmaster at the banquet.

To Announce Winners

Announcement of the winners in the 1935 Newspaper Critical Contest and the five winners of the individual news-writing contests will be made by Howard Ennes, director of the convention.

Eleanor A. Heller, editor of The Hatchet, will present the editor of the winning metropolitan area newspaper and the editor of the winning states area paper with gold cups offered by The Hatchet.

Individuals Get Keys

Ennes will present the individual winners with gold keys, and the placing newspapers with certificates of award. All papers sending delegates to the convention will receive certificates of membership at the banquet.

Entries in the newspaper contest will be placed tonight as the special committee of newspaper men and women meet to judge the papers.

Committee Named

The committee consists of Mrs. Marcelle LeMeneger Lane, member of the committee on publications and public relations representative for the University; John Busick of The Washington Daily News, for-

(Continued on Page 4)

Address Final Banquet

Sir Willmott Lewis (left), Howard Parrish (right), and Ray Tucker will be guest speakers at the final session of the George Washington Scholastic Press Convention Saturday evening at Wesley Hall.

Engineers To Honor Pledges

Theta Tau Local Alumni to Organize Preceding Initiation

Pledges of the George Washington chapter of Theta Tau, national professional engineering fraternity, will be the guests of Theta Tau alumni at a dinner in their honor Saturday evening, Nov. 23, at the Hay Adams House.

The pledges are Harry C. Connor, John R. Evans, Fred J. Fielitz, Wilbur R. Garrett Jr., Hobarg B. Lee, William R. Lipscomb, George E. Rhine, John H. Rixse Jr., James C. Robertson Jr., John S. Sheiry and Robert S. Walleigh.

The program for the evening includes a meeting of the alumni for organization of a local alumni club at 1:45 p. m., initiation at 2:15 p. m., and the dinner at 7:30 p. m.

Fifteen alumni of G. W., who are members of Phi Theta Xi, which last year became a chapter of Theta Tau, will be initiated at the ceremonies with the pledges.

Chest Solicits No Funds From University Students

University students will not be solicited as such for contributions to the Community Chest, according to Dean John R. Lapham, School of Engineering.

Faculty members who wish to contribute will receive written notices telling them where and when they may do so.

Hatchet Notice

Members of The Hatchet staff who plan to attend either of the luncheons, the dinner, or the banquet of the Press Convention must register with Margaret Davis, registration chairman, by Friday morning.

The entire staff is invited to attend any or all of the sessions of the convention. Assignments for senior reporters during the convention will be posted in The Hatchet office Wednesday.

Union Holds Final Rallies This Week

Guest Speakers, Students To Address All Three Meetings

Final rallies of Union parties will be held this week as the Left Party meets in Stockton 10 at 8:15 tonight, followed by the Center rally Thursday in Corcoran 10 and the Right Monday in the latter place.

All rallies will present speakers upholding the philosophies of the various parties. Tonight the Lefts will hear Francis Gorman, first vice president of the United Textile Workers, speaking on "Labor's Role in Social Conflict"; and George Edwards, secretary of the League for Industrial Democracy, talking on "The Plight of the Share-Cropper".

Bane Addresses Center

The Center program Thursday will feature an address by Frank Bane, executive director of the Social Securities Commission, "Sane Progress in Social Security".

The Rightists will hear Charlton McVeagh who will address them on "False Phrases and False Prophets". Mr. McVeagh, author of "What Must America Choose?", is a former speaker of the Oxford Union.

Student speakers will follow the main addresses at all rallies. Leftists will hear William Goodykoontz, Joseph Jaffee, Charles Keifer, and chairman Harvey Thirloway. The Centerists will be addressed by John Bracken, who will fire the opening gun of the center campaign. Members of the Right Party will hold an open forum but no student speaker has been announced yet.

Lefts Hear Marvin

Pres. Cloyd H. Marvin, in a 45-minute talk before members of the Party of the Left Monday, outlined his policies in reference to student mobilizations for peace and like demonstrations.

He stressed the fact that his policy has been consistent in the handling of such affairs, and that this University can not, and will not be influenced by outside organizations and made an instrument of propaganda and will not yield to pressure groups, whether right, center, or left.

A committee of University students, presented a petition bearing more than 500 names to President Marvin, but were refused the permission they asked to cooperation in the nation-wide student peace mobilization Friday.

The move to have a demonstra-

(Continued on Page 4)

Men, Women Groups Hold First Meeting

H. C. Hutckins Speaks on Employment Problems Wednesday

Independent men and women, in their first general meeting of the year Wednesday, heard Dr. H. C. Hutckins, research director of the Federal Committee on Youth Problems During the Depression, outline employment problems facing college students today.

Dr. Hutckins, graduate of the Universities of Michigan and Wisconsin and prominent independent at Wisconsin, pointed out that "students must make the decision now as to whether they want to work with people or with things, and train themselves accordingly."

Following Doctor Hutckins' talk, the men adjourned to Corcoran 29 to conduct their business meeting while the women remained in Corcoran 10.

Program Drawn Up

The men's group drew up a tentative four-point program to be investigated by committees for reports at the next meeting. The projects are: A student operated book exchange, a definite program working toward popularized social affairs, a student activity record, and a scholastic honor society.

The first business taken up by the group was election of four officers to fill vacancies. Edmund Browning was elected vice chairman; Terry McPherson, treasurer; and Richard Colman and Howard Ennes, board members.

Women Discuss Projects

Under the chairmanship of Alison Claflin, the Independent Women discussed the same projects as those being undertaken by the men.

Since there were not enough women present to elect permanent officers or ratify a constitution, plans were made to have Reba Edelman, temporary delegate to the Student Council, appeal to the Council for the ratification of the organization regardless of number.

This action was taken in view of the fact that at each of the past meetings there have been at least 25 women present.

President Marvin To Talk About Library Science

Pres. Cloyd H. Marvin will speak on "The Future of the Division of Library Science" before the Library Science Alumni Association Thursday at 8 p. m. in H-101.

The meeting, according to Fern Hyatt, secretary, constitutes one of the four usually held each year by the alumni group.

108 High Schools Invited To Hatchet-Sponsored Conclave

Registration Opens at 8:30 a. m. Nov. 15

Dean Johnstone, Dr. Morgan, Bryan Morse Open Sessions

High school journalists of Washington, Maryland, and Virginia converge upon the University this week as the Third Annual Press Convention, sponsored by The Hatchet, opens its two day series of sessions Friday morning.

Registration for all delegates will be conducted by members of Gamma Eta Zeta, honorary journalistic sorority, in The Hatchet office, 2016 H St., beginning Friday at 8:30 a. m. The first assembly of the convention will be held in Corcoran 10 at 9:30.

A varied program of both educational and social features will be offered delegates from the 108 schools invited. Featured at general assemblies, group discussions, luncheons, and at the final banquet will be talks by 36 well-known newspaper men and women attached to Washington newspapers and news bureaus.

The social program will be headlined by the Tulsa-George Washington University football game, Friday evening, the dance following the game, a reception Friday afternoon, and two luncheons and a banquet Friday and Saturday.

Johnstone Greets Delegates

William C. Johnstone Jr., dean of the Junior College, will welcome delegates to the Convention on behalf of the University administration at the general assembly in Corcoran 10. Preceeding Dean Johnstone's address, Howard Ennes, director, will officially open the convention.

Dr. Joy E. Morgan, editor of the NEA Journal and director of publications of the National Education Association, and Bryan Morse, promotion manager of The Washington Herald, will speak to the delegates.

Hudson Wells, 1934-35 president of the Association, will conduct the business meeting of the convention, and officers for the coming year will be nominated.

At 11:30 delegates will be conducted on a tour of the University by Mrs. Vinnie G. Barrows, director of women's personnel guidance. During this tour representatives will visit all University buildings, will examine a special exhibit of newspaper materials and products in Columbian House, and will have the official convention picture taken.

Star Reporter Will Speak

In the new Biological Sciences Building at noon in room 101, the convention will hear Eddy Gilmore, star feature writer for The Washington Daily News; and Rod Thomas, football writer for The Evening Star.

Douglas Bement, member of the committee on publications and assistant professor of English, will act as toastmaster at the luncheon Friday when Dean John R. Lapham of the School of Engineering, chairman of the committee of publications; Bob Considine, sports columnist of The Washington Herald; and Mrs. Laura Vitray,

(Continued on Page 4)

Baptist Union Plans Parley

Seven Colleges, Universities to Be Represented at Convention

Representatives of seven neighboring colleges and universities will attend the Baptist Student Union Convention sponsored by the G. W. U. and Maryland University Baptist groups from Saturday to Tuesday.

W. W. Everett, vice president and general manager of Woodward Lothrop department store, will give the opening address at a banquet Saturday evening in Calvary Baptist Church.

Sibyl Browne will then speak on "Sharing Christ With a Waiting World".

Services held in the National Memorial Baptist Church will comprise the Sunday sessions. Dr. Kyle Yates from Louisville, will deliver the morning and evening sermons during the regular church services.

The delegate will also attend the College Students Sunday School Class taught by Dr. J. T. Watts, Maryland State mission secretary. A College Students Baptist Young People's Union meeting will precede the evening church services.

Monday's program includes a forum and a business session when state officers will be elected.

Featuring the final session Tuesday will be an address by Charles A. Wells, cartoonist and New York news correspondent.

Forum Offers Merrick's 'American Family' Friday

"American Family", a radio drama written by Lavina Merrick of the creative writing class and produced by the University Players under the direction of Prof. Douglas Bement of the English department, will be broadcast on WMAL Friday at 10:15 p. m. on the University Radio Forum.

The drama, which deals with the old age pension feature of the Social Securities Act, is the fourth and last in a series of Forum programs on social security sponsored by Dr. Carl D. Wells of the sociology department.

The story tells of the Mason family, Mr., Mrs., and Billy Mason, played by Hamilton Coit, Wanda Sarnecki, and Florence Rice, who support Mrs. Lee, played by Lillian Gerstein. Mrs. Lee is an elderly woman who took Mr. Mason on his twelfth birthday, when his parents were killed in an auto accident, and raised him.

Because of the depression, the

(Continued on Page 4)

Lavina Merrick

Philippine Students Reflect National Awakening Spirit

Philippine students are beginning to reflect the spirit of national awakening that is taking their native land. And with the inauguration of the new Commonwealth government of the Philippines on Nov. 15 comes a wave of observations and speculations on the most recent step toward Philippine autonomy.

Among this group of students rests a deep respect for the help which the United States has given the Philippines, but now they have great faith in their country's power for self-government. One cannot help but observe that if these Philippine students are an example of the leaders and followers of Philippine independence that our government has been wise in granting autonomy to the Philippines.

"Philippine Night" was a timely program of the International Students Society last Friday night, when this small but enthusiastic group of Filipino students illustrated the culture of the Philippines, with music and native dancing—which reflected a great degree of Western influence.

A similar move to inculcate this spirit of new development in the Philippines was inaugurated Sunday by the Philippinesian Club, which is anxious to spread the consciousness of the cultural, political, and economic life of the Philippines.

When the new era for the Philippines is sounded this week, there will be a small group of University students who will celebrate the day with no less enthusiasm than will sweep the Philippine Islands.

The University Hatchet

Member

Intercollegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States—National Scholastic Press Association.

National Advertising Service, Inc., 420 Madison Ave., New York City, sole and exclusive national advertising representatives.

Board of Editors

Editor.....ELEANOR A. HELLER
Associate Editor.....RICHARD P. CREYKE
Associate Editor.....JAMES W. HALEY

Senior Staff Members

David Apter, Ruth Brewer, Sid Carroll, William Cheatham, Howard Ennes, Charles Hallam, Ethel Nelson

Business Staff

Business Manager.....

Circulation Manager.....Bernard Margolius

Published weekly from September to June, with one issue in July, by the students of The George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

Entered as second-class matter, October 27, 1911, at the Post Office at Washington, D. C., under Act of March 3, 1879. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized March 8, 1919.

Telephone National 6462 (University Exchange) then ask for "University Hatchet." After 7 p. m. and on Sunday call District 5170.

For last-minute news call National 5838.

Subscription, $2.00 a year.

Washington, D. C., Tuesday, November 12, 1935

Exitus Acta Probat

The Hatchet Extends Welcome To High School Journalists

THE Hatchet counts it a distinct privilege and pleasure to welcome to the George Washington campus again this year junior members of the scholastic press profession—high school journalists from the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, who are meeting here in convention Friday and Saturday.

This is the third such convention. The first one was held in 1933 with about 50 delegates in attendance; the second, held last year, attracted 70 representatives. This year's convention promises to be even larger in spite of the fact that the meeting is being confined to newspaper writers whereas previous conventions have been for yearbooks as well as for newspapers.

Every effort is being made to provide an interesting and attractive program, as well as an instructive one for these journalists of day after tomorrow. In addition to the "professional" meetings, at which some of Washington's outstanding journalists will be heard, the entertainment committee is providing for a reception, special luncheons, attendance at the football game as guests of the Athletic Department, attendance at the dance following as guests of the Student Council and a concluding banquet featuring speakers of national prominence.

As time goes on this Press Convention takes on the aspect of an institution in itself. Greeting the delegates this year will be a number of present G. W. students whose first acquaintance with the University came about through their attendance at previous conventions. This year's director, as an example, was elected president at the first convention.

We greet you, fellow journalists, and trust that your short stay with us will be helpful, interesting and pleasant!

Interfraternity Council Might Try Planning Ahead

THE interfraternity sports program began the middle of October with the tennis competition. Last Sunday the golf tournament was played off. And last Sunday, also, the Interfraternity Council passed two more regulations governing participation in interfraternity sports.

Regularly, since the sports program opened, The Hatchet has been carrying stories about new rules and regulations governing interfraternity sports. These regulations have brought about a great deal of confusion since they have disqualified certain members of fraternity teams at the last minute, oftentimes breaking up teams which had been carefully organized. There have also been several cases of confusion at the actual scene of contest when the eligibility of certain players has been questioned and no one seemed to know whether or not the new ruling was in effect; nor, for that matter, whether or not a new ruling had been passed that morning.

Let us divert for a moment to the scholarship cup competition. This issue of The Hatchet carries a list of fraternities, their grades, and relative standings. As is usual when this list appears, several fraternities are not listed. Last year this same situation gave rise to a heated controversy, and finally to a re-determining of the standings. There is no reason to assume that there will not be another protest—or several of them—registered this year.

This listing has not been declared to be official by the Council. If the Council has devised its own system of tabulating scholarship ratings as a result of last year's controversy, well and good; this complaint then applies only to the sports program. Incidentally, however, this would seem to necessitate an unfortunate duplication of labor.

If this record, however, is not to be utterly ignored by the Council, then complaints are indeed in order, for the listing depends solely upon the submission by the secretary of each fraternity of a list of actives and pledges before a stated deadline. The request for this list is sent out each year during rushing, although the obvious time for submission of such lists is at the end of the year in question, and not at the beginning of the next year when a new secretary is in office and the fraternities' thoughts are turned to building for the future, not worrying over the past. Moreover, frequent complaints are heard from secretaries that they receive no notification whatsoever. It is easy to solve the situation by saying that the fault is the secretaries' and the remedy is to make them send in the lists on time. But when the same situation occurs year after year some other remedy should be sought—a practical, not theoretical one.

Undoubtedly the Interfraternity Council will now begin to take action in regard to the scholarship award—now that this list has been published; just as it did in regard to the sports situation—after the program had begun. The real fault in both instances is not that of the chapter secretaries nor that of the chapter sports chairmen; it is that of the Council and its belated action.

Would it be too much to ask that the Council this year—after the sports program has been completed and the inevitable controversy over the scholarship cup has been decided—turn its attention back to these two questions and seek to settle them for the future. These competitions—together with the Interfraternity Prom—are the chief concern and contribution of the Council. In the peace and quiet of the lull which will follow their completion matters can be discussed leisurely and carefully. Then the issues can be settled and next year's fraternities may go into the race knowing—or at least suspecting—what it is all about.

FLYING CHIPS

The Great War is Over, so is Armistice Day of 1935, so is the Student Mobilization for Peace, But may I Ask . . . ?

—By Jimmie Haley—

Dr. Wesley C. Mitchell, Member National Advisory Board of the National Resources Committee;

Dr. William T. Foster, Member Consumers Advisory Board of the National Recovery Administration;

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, Secretary of the Interior in the Hoover Administration;

Dr. George F. Zook, former U. S. Commissioner of Education, Department of Interior.

Gentlemen:

In schools and colleges throughout the country last Friday there took place an "Armistice Day Student Mobilization for Peace" with which you are, of course, thoroughly familiar.

I say you are thoroughly familiar with this demonstration because of your positions on the National Board of Advisers of the National Student Federation of America (NSFA). This organization, NSFA, while not the only group sponsoring the demonstration, certainly was the ringleader, judging from its own publicity releases.

At these "peace mobilizations" students were urged to take a stand for four points, these points being passed as resolutions by some groups and even administered as oaths in some groups. Following are the four points, quoted from NSFA literature carried through the mails in the same envelopes bearing your names, honorable sirs, as National Advisers of the organization:

1—"to support by every means at our disposal genuine neutrality legislation to prevent entanglement of the United States in war—no loans, credits, munitions or secondary war materials to belligerents;

2—"to work for the demilitarization of our colleges and schools especially by assuring the passage of the Nye-Kvale Bill to make the R. O. T. C. optional instead of compulsory;

3—"to insist on opportunities in the curriculum and out for relating our education to these crucial problems;

4—"to refuse to support the government of the United States in any war it may undertake."

Now understand I do not want any war; I want peace, everlasting peace. But I do want to be reasonable, as well as honorable, in this matter.

I can conscientiously subscribe to Point No. 1 and perhaps to Point No. 3; Point No. 2 might be all right too, though displeasing to me. But I cannot support Point No. 4, as at present advised, by any affirmative act and most certainly I shall not swear to it nor even vote for it as a resolution.

All my life I have been taught, and I do believe, that I should heed the advice and counsel of my elders if I would do the right thing. Also since all of you are now, or have been, employed in responsible and important positions by the Government, I feel sure that your attitude towards the Government will be most wholesome to follow. Therefore, gentlemen, before making up my mind definitely on this point, I would ask your answers to the following questions:

One. Did you subscribe to Point No. 4 above as an oath, or did you vote for it as a resolution?

Two. Do you advise me, and have you advised other students throughout the country, to subscribe to Point No. 4 above as an oath or as a resolution?

Three. If you do not, or did not, do these things, then why did your names appear on NSAF handouts and letterheads promoting this demonstration which featured the four above-mentioned "challenges"?

JUST BETWEEN US

"Bulletin boards are a mess . . . since they exist mainly to serve student projects . . . why not call on the Student Council to edit, weed out and keep notices at least in the current year?"

By Verna Volz

LET us now go into a session on being concrete about a problem. Let us take up an actual question—one with an answer. This department, like most editorial page columns on most campuses, is wont to get concerned over myriad problems, but most of them are rather abstract things. Who, for instance, ever saw a "student attitude" on this or that? Who, we might even ask, has ever heard one that was shared wholly by more than two people? Who can scare up a tangible tradition? Who can explain to you or to me why there is not enough energy in 7,000 of us to put out a literary magazine? The resolution of these and similar difficulties becomes a little too much at times.

But there is, however, a perfectly respectable, answerable problem in our midst. Our bulletin boards are a mess.

You've seen this happen in Corcoran. A harrassed student will come tearing up to the board at 9 after 10, peering frantically in search of the announcement of where his class meets today. He is greeted by a flapping mass of disordered posters, notices, pamphlets, and photographs, often three layers thick. He has not only to peer but to plow through inches of stuff to get finally to the official bulletin. More than likely it is torn and his significant section vanished, so he cuts class anyway. He tacks back the poster for a high school dance, a written invitation to share the expenses of a trip to Minneapolis, and a month-old club meeting announcement, and goes wearily on his way.

Speaking of the antiquity of some of our standing bulletins, an archeologist might find some interest in the yellowed specimens still displayed proudly in the locked Fiesta bulletin case on the back of Lisner Hall.

So our boards are a mess. Their confusion defeats their own legitimate purpose, and the extent to which they are up-to-the-minute accuses us of somnambulism.

What to do? Since the system which works fairly well for Stockton—having all posting done under the auspices of an office in the building—is impracticable for all the buildings, why not call on the Student Council?

Perhaps it wouldn't be too much to ask that the Council, then, round up a staff to edit and weed out the notices, and keep them at least in the current year. It would be a service, you know.

EX LIBRIS—FINIS

Covering a wide interest range, current magazine articles attract the busy student.

By Reba Edelman

THERE are many students who, staggering under the burden of college work, find it impossible to give time to the reading of entire books for pleasure. It is, therefore, with this thought in mind that the following magazine articles published in the November issues are being reviewed.

First and foremost is "Conversation at Midnight", fourteen poems by Edna St. Vincent Millay, in Harpers. To this reviewer it was a distinct shock to find the poetess of the "Renaissance" discussing real social values. This innovation in no way interferes with the beauty or strength of the poetry itself. Rather does it align Edna St. Vincent Millay with all of our great modern poets who are congizant of economic and social chaos. By all means, if you wish to discover an entirely new Edna St. Vincent Millay, read this excellent and unusual collection.

* * * * *

FOLLOWING the custom we now turn to the offerings of The Atlantic. Hilda Rose, that remarkable woman who is pioneering with her husband and son in Fort ermillion, Alberta, is calling again from her distant outpost in that courageous manner which has endeared her to all the readers of this magazine, and Della T. Lutes, whose description of food in the olden days reminds one of some of Thomas Wolfe's dissertions on vitamins, is writing about a Thanksgiving dinner. Not to be overlooked is that refreshingly naive document by Jaunita Harrison, a negress who traveled through 22 countries working as a ladies' maid and housekeeper, "My Great Wide Beautiful World".

* * * * *

THE American Mercury comes through with a debunking article which is heart warming to those who have for a long time had a grudge against William Lyon Phelps and all of his little clubs. John Bakeless, author of this gem—"William Lyon Phelps, Book-Booster"—is a teacher of journalism at New York University and an able writer. The only regret you might have while reading about the originator of the "Fairie Queene Club" is why didn't I write that myself.

Also in the Mercury is a satirical exposition by J. H. Oppenheim entitled, "The Supreme Court Grows Up". This should be very useful to members of the debate squad.

In a more serious vein we have a most enlightening discussion of the Italian situation entitled, "Italy Doubts Mussolini", by M. E. Ravage in the Current History. Here is a new angle on what may happen if the Ethopian war is dragged out too long.

* * * * *

OF INTEREST in connection with the new G. W. Philippinesian League there is "Wither the Philippines?" by Grayson L. Kirk, member of the Wisconsin faculty. The question put to us by Mr. Kirk is this: "Can the Philippine state, in view of general world conditions, and especially those prevailing in the Far East, maintain its independence once it has been established"? His answer is most interesting and probably correct as he takes a negative stand.

Fiction Parade, a newcomer, presents some very worthwhile stories and some that are mediocre to say the least. Most enjoyable are, "A Flower Box for Lizette", by Dorothy Seager, and "The Very Picture of Grief", by Eleanor Carroll.

At this point, if you really want to have fun, remember that magazine which is tops—"The New Yorker."

MUSIC

Kriesler's composition now legitimate—carried author's name first time last week.

By Gifford Irion

FRITZ KREISLER'S compositions became legitimate Wednesday evening when, for the first time, the program carried his name as the composer of works which had heretofore been attributed to Pugnani, Couperin, and Tartini.

There are those who question the ethics of an artist's choosing so many of his own compositions for his concert playing. There also are those who call Kreisler a showman, and those who say he has, for an artist, a grand sense of humor. However divergent their opinions may have been on the aforementioned topics, the ermined and the lesser-folk who sat in Constitution Hall Wednesday evening agreed that Kreisler played as he has not played in many a year; played with genuine happiness and with vitality.

Kreisler's own compositions showed an amazing technique and fluency, the moods ranging from the pastoral tones of his "Prelude" in the style of Pugnani to the richness and charm of "Chanson Louis XIII et Pavane" in the manner of Louis Couperin.

* * * * *

ROMAN TOTENBERG, young Polish violinist, made his first American appearance as a concert artist last Thursday evening, playing, with the National Symphony Orchestra, Beethoven's concerto in D major.

If it is true that the concerto is the final test of the artist, then Roman Totenberg has passed with highest honors. The Beethoven concerto, outwardly possessed of great simplicity, requires a faultless technique, quality and variety of tone, depth of feeling, and faithfulness of interpretation. Totenberg excelled in all these particulars. In addition, his dynamic rendition of the first movement cadenza seemed to permit a greater emotional expression in the two final movements. It was truly a triumph for Totenberg.

* * * * *

IT IS a pleasure to recommend to disciples of the gramophone a new album by the Boston Symphony Orchestra of Sibelius' 2nd Symphony. The possibilities of this work were not fully realized in the older Columbia version, which never quite produced the thrill in the last movement which certainly should be there. You will not regret hearing this brilliant recording.

And while you are trying records ask for Kirsten Flagstad's new disk of the "Liebestod". At last, after these many years, there is a perfect Isolde on a perfect recording of this perfect music.

Also worth hearing are Ormandy's playing of the 4th Beethoven symphony and Stokowski's orchestration of "Es ist vollbracht" by Bach. Among the dance tunes you may like: "It Never Dawned on Me", (Enric Madriguera); "Red Sails in the Sunset", (Jack Jackson); "I'm on a See-Saw", ("Fats" Waller).

Other Campi

Gatekeepers at Ohio State University have a novel method for deciding whether you're sober enough to enter the stadium. If you can wiggle your thumbs in unison, you're o. k. Otherwise you can watch the game from a telegraph pole.

According to a professor of psychology at Oregon State University, fellows who receive A's are usually the meek and submissive type who can be molded to suit the prof's will. The independent and defiant type average a C.

At the University of Holland freshmen must have their heads shaved and must not use the college entrances. They must use the windows in going to or from the buildings.

A questionnaire given to a body of the teachers of a prominent Eastern school had for its avowed purpose an expose of the inability of most modern scholars to answer comparatively simple questions outside their own fields. Out of 41 statements to be marked true or false, the highest score was 16 correct.

There is one girl student at Lindsay College, Lindsay, Ont., Can., whose ambition is to become "a good wife for some man". The others, a survey revealed, would like to become teachers, nurses, stenographers, dieticians, writers, or interior decorators. Would-be teachers led the list.

Maybe the co-ed is kidding. A questionnaire, distributed by "The Jester", a humorous campus publication at Barnard College, showed that of 75 Barnard girls, 72 smoked, 60 drank, 50 had been intoxicated, 60 had been kissed, 34 had kissed as many as 10 men, and 20 had had dates with married men. School officials pointed out that the magazine is a humorous publication, and that what was printed as fact might have been only fun. The editors stuck to their guns. They maintained that they had printed only the facts.

minutiae

Notes on a Peace Mobilization

By Dick Creyke

THE Yard last Friday morning at 11 o'clock was the scene of a peaceful—very peaceful—drama.

Drifting back to the rear of the new biological sciences building at the hour appointed for the contemplated peace mobilization, I found little sign of activity. There were three policemen there, one in gold braid, all ready to stop anything in case it started. There was also a photographer and three or four newspaper-looking people. One or two of the originators of the movement dropped by to see what was happening.

There were also several hefty men moving furniture into Building H. They could have served as efficient bouncers had the occasion demanded.

A small, dark woman student rushed up and asked, "Are you from The Hatchet? I have a statement to make." I said, "Not officially", and so didn't hear her. This I have since regretted.

The newspaper people asked the several students who had gathered—apparently out of curiosity—if they would mind starting something—just a little demonstration. Unable to muster up a demonstration, they left.

The American flag flew magestically overhead in a just-sufficient breeze—which might serve to allay the fears of any suspecting a "red" demonstration.

But one of the benches of the Yard seemed to be the focal point of the situation.

There a young mother sat and watched while her two-year old youngster played with a bright red wagon. She was fondly watching his every move. He was blissfully happy with his toy and in the warmth of the noon-day sunlight.

And neither of them could have had the faintest suspicion that at least one of the other persons in the yard was regarding them and wondering if the scene they created did not, in itself, constitute a perfect demonstration against war.

PAGE PROOFS

Callaghan Opus Is Forceful Narrative

Case-Study of Modern Family Affairs

By Brooke Stewart

IN LINE with the fashion these days of giving books obscure titles that only the author pretends to understand, Morley Callaghan calls his latest novel "They Shall Inherit the Earth" (Random House $2.50).

Though this is mentioned with no disrespect in mind, I can see no significance in the name, for surely the main character, a rebellious young man, is anything but the "meek," to whom the Biblical quotation applies.

The novel, something of a psychological case-study, is a forceful treatment of the modern problem of family estrangements created by divorce and remarriage.

Michael Akenhead, the aforementioned rebel, leaves his home after his father's second marriage, and tries with little success to make a decent living in a depression-ravaged world.

It is only after he has allowed his hated step brother to drown, and has completely severed his family ties, that a reconciliation is finally effected. This providential return to sane thinking is brought about by the efforts of Anna Prychoda, who lives in the shoddy rooming house where he is staying. The fine picture of this girl's character is one of the high spots of Mr. Callaghan's work.

Like other novels of the case-study type, "They Shall Inherit the Earth" is a careful portrayal of the inner development of an emotionally warped individual. Unlike such works, however, it contains a deal of rather subtle humor. Through the myriads of minor characters, all competently handled, the author brings out numerous trends of current thought.

Although it can hardly be designated as light reading, and despite its somewhat ambitious length, the reader will probably complete it in one sitting.

Rats, Deserted by Science, Give Way to Dog Study

By Earl Burton

The Pied Piper is here! This time it's dogs, not rats that follow the mysterious call.

Dogs everywhere. Dogs in flocks, dogs in couples, and dogs alone. All moving—some at a trot, some walking with diffidence, but all moving in the same direction.

Sounds like dogs are going to things! This might well be the lead for a scoop story according to Dr. Lawson W. Yocum of the Botany Department.

It is a whistle for dogs alone, invented with vibration pitch that is impenetrable to human ears, but very much so to those of the canine family.

But in the practical application of the thing, there seems to be a few complications.

What fun for a bunch of idle students to obtain a supply of these dog whistles and go to work! Imagine the annoyance of the dog-owners when their pets begin to stream out for no apparent reason—like rats of the Pied Piper. Also the extreme annoyance, chagrin, or should we say righteous anger if the whistler who blew for his dog until he was blue in the face and discovered his whistle wasn't working.

Quite clever these whistles no one can hear. But remember, Doctor Yocum says he's only heard of them.

John Marshall Speaks On Social Security Act

John A. Marshall, director of the D. C. Unemployment Compensation Board, spoke Friday on the University Radio Forum at 10:15 p. m. on WMAL. The subject of his talk was, "The Unemployment Insurance Feature of the Social Security Act".

BOOKS.. Paul PEARLMAN —1711 G—

ART MATERIALS MUTH 710 13th NAt. 6386

WELCOME!
Members of the High School Press Convention to the
Headquarters of G. W. Students
LOYD'S CAFETERIA
1819 G St. NA. 0492

EASY WAY TO GET ROOM ON DANCE FLOOR ..AND AN EASY WAY TO ENJOY A PIPE

STUDENT LIFTS ARM TO START DANCE—THROWING SWITCH ON ELECTRIC MOTOR (A) WHICH ELECTRICALLY CHARGES BUMPERS (B) AND LOWERS TWIN PORCUPINES (C) AS SKUNK (D) IS PROJECTED OUT ON END OF REVOLVING POLE. FEATHER TICKLES SKUNK AND MAKES HIM MAD THUS ASSURING PLENTY OF ROOM. P.S. IF ORCHESTRA ALSO CLEARS OUT GO FOR A WALK IN THE PARK

I SMOKE A LOT OF PIPES, BUT ONLY ONE TOBACCO — PRINCE ALBERT!

WHY P.A. TASTES SO MILD

THAT FRIENDLY P.A. FLAVOR COMES FROM CHOICE TOBACCOS—WITH ALL THE "BITE" REMOVED. P.A. IS ESPECIALLY CUT THE "CRIMP CUT" WAY AND PACKED IN A BIG ECONOMY TIN

PRINCE ALBERT
THE NATIONAL JOY SMOKE!

Copyright, 1935, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Co-Eds Win Many Events In Fall Meet

Hood, Goucher and G.W. Sports Meet Held Saturday.

The Blue and Buff girls, 94 strong, made a very creditable showing as they met Hood and Goucher in the annual triangular fall sports meet Saturday at Frederick, Md. There was no scoring and no winner of the meet was named.

In the tennis matches the G. W. team beat Goucher with Margaret Belnick and Julia Stanton winning the doubles 8-4, eight being the set game score decided for the meet, while Mellie Hatch was beaten in the best singles match of the day, 8-6, and Ansley Spalding won, 8-2. The team was less successful against Hood with Belnick-Hatch being defeated in the doubles, 8-4, and Spalding losing a marathon singles match, 16-14. Julia Stanton won her singles match, 8-5.

The hockey teams were more successful. The junior-senior team beat Hood, 2-0, Kitty Black and Peggy Graves scoring for the Buff. The Goucher-G. W. sophomore teams played to a harmless 0-0 tie, while the freshman emulated their elders, fighting to a 1-1 deadlock, with Taylor of G. W. and Neuman making the goals. The junior-senior team lost to Goucher 2-1, with Leila Fern making the G. W. score and playing the best game. Westermaier of Hood was too much for the freshman team as she scored both her team's goals, Hood winning, 2-0. The sophomore team tied Hood 0-0.

In soccer Team 1 beat Hood 4-2 and then tied Goucher 2-2, with Audrey McCuen starring. Team 2 licked Hood, 6-4.

The fencing team swamped Hood, winning 3 matches out of 4. Barbara Feiker beat Ann DeGregor 5 touches to 2, and then took the measure of Betty Gilmore, 5-3. Louise Erk licked DeGregor, 5-4, but was defeated by Gilmore, 5-2.

Tulsa Dance Friday Night

Press Delegates and Players to Be Honored at Affair.

Delegates to the High School Press Convention and members of both contending football teams will be guests of the Student Council at the second post-game dance of the season, Friday evening in the Ballroom of the Nations at the Washington Hotel.

The dance, climaxing the football game between George Washington and its traditional rival, Tulsa, will afford players and their supporters an opportunity to meet again following the game on more friendly terms.

Music will be furnished by Lee Fields and his orchestra, who played for the Homecoming Ball. They will feature a medley of George Washington tunes.

The dance will be informal, and will last from 10:30 to 1:30, according to Harry Ames, Student Council social chairman. Tickets are $1.50 a couple.

Philipsborn
11th Street Between F & G

Robes $3.95

Just right for these crisp mornings . . . nicely tailored robes of all wool flannel, braid trimmed, with Peter Pan collar, sash, and deep pocket. In royal, turquoise, and navy blue, red, green, rose and wine.

street floor

"At the Masquerade - - - - "

Top Half—S. A. E. Bal Boheme; Left to Right. Bottom Half—Sigma Chi Pirates' Ball: Left to Right.
Photos by Hammer.

"Colonials" Lead Meet

Annual Tournament Goes Into Second Round This Week.

The Colonial Campus Club today prepared to defend its lead in the annual women's intramural volleyball meet as play began in the second week of the tournament.

The C. C. C. team played two games and won both, beating Phi Mu, last year's winner, and Delta Zeta. Phi Sigma Sigma and Zeta Tau Alpha, both favored teams, won their one game to keep in the running.

The complete results are:

League 1—Sigma Kappa beat Zeta Tau Alpha by default. Zeta Tau Alpha defeated Pi Beta Phi and Phi Sigma Sigma beat Sigma Kappa.

League 2—Alpha Delta Pi won over Alpha Delta Theta, Beta Phi Alpha beat Chi Omega by default, and Delta Zeta beat Kappa Delta.

League 3—C. C. C. defeated Phi Mu, and C. C. C. beat Delta Zeta.

Pairings for this week follow:

Monday, 2:45—Alpha Delta Theta vs. Chi Omega.

Wednesday, 2:45—Sigma Kappa vs. Pi Beta Phi, and Delta Zeta vs. Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Friday, 1:00—Alpha Delta Pi vs. Chi Omega; 1:45—Kappa Delta vs. C. C. C., and Kappa Kappa Gamma vs. Phi Mu; 2:30—Phi Sigma Sigma vs. Zeta Tau Alpha, and Alpha Delta Theta vs. Beta Phi Alpha.

Greek Groups Initiate Thirteen

Thirteen new initiates have been announced by three Greek organizations.

Kappa Kappa Gamma anounces the formal initiation of Betty Mae Brown and Mary Ellen Flynn.

Kappa Alpha announces the formal initiation of Dallas Barr, Jasper Berry, Alan Crain, Guy Crampton, Herschel Helm, and Philip Lightfoot.

Phi Sigma Kappa announces the initiation of Clarence Britt, Lynn Kennedy, Al Kiesel, Charles Mace, and James Thomas.

Miss Newman's Talk Features Bar Dinner

Helen Newman, secretary of the Law School and Law Librarian, will be among the speakers at the first monthly dinner of the Women's Bar Association Thursday evening at the Admiral Club.

Other speakers are George M. Morris, chairman of the General Council of the American Bar Association, Paul Hannah, and Mae Helm. Members of the local council of the American Bar Association will be honor guests at the dinner.

Modern Writing

brings

Higher Marks!

The swift, responsive keys of the new Underwood Universal Portable make your writing easier, neater, better. The ultimate result brings higher marks.

Models from $37.50 to $77.00 may be purchased on easy payment plan. Come in for free demonstration and copy of ACCURATE TOUCH TYPING.

Underwood
Elliott-Fisher Co.
Homer Bldg., 13th & F
Washington, D. C.
Phone: District 1630

Social Events Register

Thursday, Nov. 14
Women's Bar Association Dinner, The Admiral.

Friday, Nov. 15
Press Convention Luncheon, 1:30 p. m., 1819 G Street.
Tulsa Dance, Washington Hotel, 10:30 until 1:30.

Saturday, Nov. 16
Press Convention Luncheon, Western Presbyterian Church, 1:30 p. m.
Press Convention Reception, Columbian House, 4:30 p. m.
Acacia "March of Time" Frolic, House.
Phi Sigma Kappa Dance, House, 10:30 to 1:30.

Sunday, Nov. 17
Gate and Key Tea Dance, Sigma Nu House, 4 to 7 p. m.
Press Convention Banquet, 7:30 p. m.

Monday, Nov. 18
Junior Columbian Women Travel Party, Columbian House.

Friday, Nov. 22
Zeta Tau Alpha Pledge Dance, Raleigh Hotel, 10 to 1.

Saturday, Nov. 23
Sigma Kappa Bridge Party.
Delta Zeta Pledge Dance.
Chi Omega Pledge Dance.

Wednesday, Nov. 27
Sigma Nu Dance, National Women's Country Club.
Theta Delta Chi Dance, House.

Thursday, Nov. 28
North Dakota Dance.

Wednesday, Dec. 11
Womens' Athletic Association Banquet, Highlands, 8 p. m.

Wednesday, Dec. 18
Kappa Kappa Gamma Pledge Dance.

Saturday, Jan. 11
Interfraternity Pledge Prom.

Friday, Feb. 21
Engineers Ball.

Feiker Is President Of W. A. A. Alumnae

Janet Feiker was elected president of the alumnae club of the W. A. A. at its first meeting last Wednesday in Building T. Louise Cox is vice-president and Clara Critchfield, secretary-treasurer.

Four sports managers were selected, as follows:

Midge Casteel, soccer; Betty Garber, hockey; Isabel Elms, archery; and Virginia Dillman, rifle.

Janet Feiker will sit on the W. A. A. board as the representative of the alumnae club to maintain a closer contact between the alumnae and the undergraduate students.

Selection of the teams in the various sports is now under way, and all interested alumnae are asked to contact the manager of the sport desired.

W. A. A. To Hold Banquet

The annual fall banquet of the Women's Athletic Association will be held December 11 at 8 p. m., at the Highlands, Connecticut Avenue and California Street, according to Eldridge Loeffler, chairman of the banquet committee.

Tickets, at 85 cents apiece, are obtainable from all members of the W. A. A. board.

Columbian Women Entertain

The Junior Group of Columbian Women will hold a travel party for its prospective members in Columbian House next Monday.

A moving picture illustrating a Carribean cruise will be shown by courtesy of the Grace Steamship Line.

The Talk
of
The University
"—and you'll enjoy
Every meal
Every day at—"
Parchey's
RESTAURANT
19th and K Streets N.W.

Many Affairs Greet Guests

Extensive Entertainment Planned for Press Delegates.

Delegates to the third annual convention of the George Washington Scholastic Press Association will be variously entertained on the campus during the coming weekend.

They will be guests of the athletic department at the George Washington-Tulsa football game, and of the Student Council at the informal after-game dance at the Washington Hotel, Friday night.

Gamma Eta Zeta will sponsor a reception Friday at 4:30 in Columbian House, at which Dean Doyle and Mrs. Barrows will act as host and hostess. In the receiving line at the reception will be the editors of The Hatchet, Eleanor A. Heller, Richard P. Creyke, and James W. Haley; Olivia Nixon, president of Gamma Eta Zeta; Everett Woodward, president of Pi Delta Epsilon; Howard Ennes, director of the convention; Bourke Floyd, president of the Student Council; Betty Bacon, president of Hour Glass; Walter Rhinehart, president of Omicron Delta Kappa; Mary Spelman, president of the Panhellenic Association, and Newell Lusby, president of the Interfraternity Council.

Luncheons have been planned for Friday and Saturday and the convention will close with an elaborate banquet.

The delegates will be housed during the convention by the following fraternities: Sigma Nu, Theta Delta Chi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Tea Dance Will Honor John Hill

Gate and Key, honorary interfraternity group, will entertain at a tea dance next Sunday from four to seven at the Sigma Nu house.

The affair is being held in honor of the organization's new president, John Hill.

The dance will be open to all members and pledges of Gate and Key, and the presidents and social chairmen of each fraternity on the Interfraternity Council are invited.

Jack Morton's orchestra will play. Harrison Knapp is chairman of the committee in charge.

We Snoop To Conquer

Catchings' Car Catches On Fire . . . A. D. Pi's Victims of New Method of Cutting . . . Therese Arcenaux Goes Out of Circulation

By The Keyholers

The "You'd never believe it" note of the week: When Ben Catchings' car, which was parked in back of the Theta Delt house, caught on fire, the Theta Delts rushed to the phone. However, they couldn't remember their house number when the fire department asked that all-important question.

The A. D. Pi dance at the Broadmoor brought out such members of the old guard as Betty Coon, Dolly Tschiffely, and Marion Boyle (commonly called the oracle of A. D. Pi because she knows all the past, present, and future history of the sorority). Some of the girls may have wondered about the identify of the gentleman of slightly more than collegiate years who had such a novel method of cutting. With hands clasped together, he literally dove between the fellow and the girl, exclaiming that he just had to dance with the girl and that he had been waiting for the opportunity all evening. He was Representative Will Rogers of Oklahoma.

Dear Pi Phi's, here's an item that you may know but which will come as a distinct shock to local playboys. Boys, we hate to break this abruptly, but Therese Arcenaux is married. Yep, the wedding took place Oct. 10 and the lucky man is Loy Anderson, a Sigma Nu from Florida.

Hangover memories of the Pirate Ball . . . the overwhelming conviction that those who dance must pay . . . The luscious lovely who posed for the triple life size portrait of the figure symbolic of the Ball . . . Tom Godey who came as Bluebeard's brother, Whitebeard, and wore a wig, moustache, and beard fashioned of a mop . . . Olive Reed in a huge white mantilla . . . Evelyn Eller looking very South Seas-y with her flowered paroa and hair flowing to the waist . . . beneath a huge sombrero Garth Edwards looked as wicked as his physiognomy would permit . . . Cole McFarland's legginess emphasized by a very short set of shorts . . . The phenomenon of check room attendants who refused the customary "pour boire".

Notes from the S. A. E. Bal Boheme: Costumes ranging from clowns to skeletons and devils were found in the large assemblage. Miss Ann Gilman came as houri of Mac Snodgrass, who was Genghis Khan, while Miss Dot Grammel and William Turpin were costumed as Russians. The above represents the press releases. Personally, we wouldn't know; we weren't invited.

We have received a very novel invitation (for which we are duly thankful) and take the liberty of reproducing it here. It runs as follows: Be it known Acacia's pledges take the honor to apprise that we request your presence in disguise at the "March of Time frolic" of 1935. History costumed in gay array is your only ticket to this affray; so with bustle, wig, or tomahawk, or any garb from history's stock, please wend your way next Saturday to our house at ten o'clock. We do hear that this verse is the result of the efforts of one Ted Pierson of the Center Party, the Progressive Party, and points south.

Wally Agnew and Anita Watson have an addition to their family. They became proud parents of a seven pound girl one day last week.

Rush Season Opens For Law Greeks

Kappa Beta Pi and Phi Delta Delta to Entertain Rushees.

Legal sorority rushing will open formally Saturday evening with a progressive puzzle party held by Kappa Beta Pi at the Endion Club, 2111 Massachusetts Ave. Phi Delta Delta will entertain its rushees Sunday morning with a breakfast at Pleasant Farm.

It will also give a formal dinner at the Mayflower Hotel, Saturday, November 23. Each legal sorority is permitted two rush parties, one formal and one informal, according to local Legal Panhellenic rules. Kappa Beta Pi has selected November 24 for the date of its informal party, but has not, as yet, announced its complete plans.

To be eligible for pledging to either of the orgazinations, a woman is required to carry at least four semester hours of work.

Kappa Beta Pi held a tea Sunday afternoon in the Chinese room of the Mayflower Hotel in honor of Judge Ellen K. Raedy. This event is given annually by Eta Alumnae Chapter in conjunction with the student chapters located at The George Washington University Law School, the Washington College of Law, and the National Law School.

Mrs. Helena D. Reed, chairman of arrangements, headed the receiving line and introduced the guests. Patrons included Colonel and Mrs. Walter Clephane, Professor Charles Collier, Justice and Mrs. Joseph Cox, and Dean and Mrs. William Van Vleck.

Phi Delta Delta celebrated its Founders' Day with a banquet Sunday night at the Mayflower Hotel.

Outstanding members of the sorority present included Judge Fay Bentley, of the District of Columbia Juvenile Court; Miss Vashti Burr; Miss Lucy Faust; Mrs. Joseph Howorth; Miss Sophie Nordholtz; Judge Mary O'Toole; Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, United States Minister to Denmark, and Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, former Assistant Attorney General of the United States.

Women Journalists Speak to Delegates

Two of the outstanding women journalists of Washington, Martha Strayer, feature writer of The Washington Daily News and Mrs. Laura Vitray, Sunday editor of The Washington Post, will speak to scholastic and collegiate writers at the Third Annual Convention of the George Washington Scholastic Press Association Friday and Saturday.

Strayer

Miss Strayer will discuss "Reporting From the Woman's Point of View" at 4:15 Saturday afternoon in Corcoran 11, and Mrs. Vitray will speak on "The Woman's Place on the Newspaper" at a luncheon to be held at 1:30 Friday at 1819 G St.

Members of the women's page and society staffs of The University Hatchet are invited to attend the meetings of the Convention, according to Howard Ennes, director.

Hatchet Makes Correction

The Hatchet wishes to make the following correction:

Patricia Davis, Katherine Dengler, Mary Jane Electner, Christo Lane Fogle, Harriet Giltner, Therese Gisted, Mary Howard, Helen Hoyem, Mary Jane Livingston, and Evelyn Watkins were pledged to Delta Zeta, not to Phi Pi Epsilon, as announced last week.

Hour Glass Meets Tonight

Hour Glass Honor Society will meet today at 8 p. m. in the Kappa Kappa Gamma rooms.

Riding Show Is Feature Of Women's Sport Week

Competition Open to All Students Entering Before Friday.

Hockey, Soccer, Archery, Tennis Complete Athletic Schedule.

A fall riding show held this year for the first time will be the feature of the annual women's sport week, Miss Ruth H. Atwell, head of the women's physical education department, said as she announced the complete schedule for the week last Friday. Varied contests will begin Monday and continue until the following Tuesday.

There will be three classes in the riding competition, the advanced, intermediate and beginners, each rated according to ability. Walk, trot, and canter competition, exhibition of stunts and riding in pairs are offered for the advanced class. The intermediates will compete in a walk, trot and canter, a "musical stall" and riding in pairs while the beginners will feature a walk, trot and canter and a "balloon tag" event.

Ribbons will be awarded the first, second and third place winners in the riding show, and any student registered in school is eligible for the competition. It is not necessary to be a member of the riding classes or the clubs, Miss Atwell emphasized. All entries should be sent to Building T before Friday.

Maxine Farley, W. A. A. manager, Gussie Mae Hanley, junior, Dorris Miller, sophomore, and Martha Cox, freshman, are the managers of the class teams.

Hockey, soccer, archery, tennis and riding complete the list of sports for the week. Class teams in each sport will be chosen by the class managers and the coach of each sport. These team selections will be announced Friday.

The hockey and soccer games will be held on the ellipse, archery on the range by the reflecting pool in Potomac Park, tennis on the Monument ground courts and riding in the ring behind the Shoreham Hotel.

The complete schedule for the weeks follows:

Monday, Nov. 18—1:30, Archery tournament. Hockey—Sophs vs. Jr. Sr. team. Soccer—Buff Frosh vs. Blue Frosh. 2:15, Soccer—Soph vs. Jr. Sr. team.

Tuesday, 12:15, Soccer—Buff Frosh vs. Sophs. Hockey—Buff Frosh vs. Sophs. 1:15, Soccer—Jr. Sr. vs. Blue Frosh. 1:30, Hockey—Jr. Sr. vs. Blue Frosh. 2:30, Archery tournament.

Wednesday, 12:15, Hockey—Buff Frosh vs. Blue Frosh. 1:45, Archery tournament. Tennis doubles finals.

Thursday, 2:30, Archery tournament.

Friday, 12:15, Hockey—Blue Frosh vs. Sophs. Soccer—Blue Frosh vs. Sophs. 1:30, Hockey—Buff Frosh vs. Jr. Sr. team. Soccer—Buff Frosh vs. Jr. Sr. team. 3:00, Riding show.

Tuesday, 12:15, Hockey—Odd Classes vs. Even Classes. Soccer—Odd Classes vs. Even Classes.

Note: The Buff section is the Monday and Wednesday class; the blue, the Tuesday and Thursday section.

Five Women Are Honored

Gamma Eta Zeta Pledges Bright, Davis, Kunna, Rex and Volz.

Five women were pledged to Gamma Eta Zeta, honorary journalistic sorority, Thursday, Nov. 7, in the Chi Omega rooms. They are Catharine Bright, Margaret Davis, Mary E. Kunna, Louise Rex, and Verna Volz. Outstanding journalistic work on either the University Hatchet or the Cherry Tree is the requisite for membership to Gamma Eta Zeta.

All five women have been prominent in campus activities. Catharine Bright, who is the activities editor of the 1936 Cherry Tree, is also a member of Delphi, honorary inter-sorority organization.

Margaret Davis has served two years on the Hatchet staff and this year holds the position of key reporter.

Assistant society editor of The Hatchet, Mary Kunna was an assistant on the Handbook staff and is a member of the March of Events staff of the Cherry Tree.

Louise Rex is senior class editor of The Cherry Tree and is the president of her social sorority, Alpha Delta Pi.

Verna Volz, who writes the column "Just Between Us" for the Hatchet, was last year awarded the Hour Glass cup for the most outstanding sophomore woman and the Kappa Delta award for high scholastic standing. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi social sorority.

Pledge Council Sets Prom Date

The Interfraternity Pledge Prom, annual function of the Interfraternity Pledge Council, will be held this year on Saturday, Jan. 11, according to Tom Dobson, Sigma Chi delegate, social chairman of the Council.

Members of the social committee are Robert Williams, Acacia representative and president of the Council; John Bradford, Theta Upsilon Omega; Edwin Cage, Kappa Sigma; Austin Gattis, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Jake Marley, Delta Tau Delta; and James Moses, Sigma Nu.

The Council will meet Sunday, Nov. 24, in the Sigma Phi Epsilon house.

Sororities Entertain Prominent Members

Two sororities entertained last week for prominent members of their groups.

Last Thursday afternoon, Kappa Kappa Gamma gave a tea in honor of Miss Marian Handy, field secretary of the fraternity.

Olivia Watkins, province president of Zeta Tau Alpha, was guest of honor at a dinner given by the sorority Saturday evening at the Madrillon.

Favorites Go To Semi-Finals

All favorites survived as the four seeded teams entered the semi-final round in the women's annual fall tennis doubles meet last week on the Monument Grounds courts. Semi-final matches will be finished this week, and the finals will be played off during Sports Week.

Mellie Hatch and Ansley Spaulding swamped Katherine Black and Helen Rosenthal, 6-2, 6-0. Whitney Strayer and Alison Claflin won over Nancy Goldsmith and Julia Stanton by default. They join the Leila Holley-Jane Esch and Louise Erk-Dot Roudabush teams in the semi-final bracket.

Pairings are as follows:

Hatch-Spalding vs. Roudabush-Erk. Holley-Esch vs. Strayer-Claflin.

Fraternity Badges
Fraternity Jewelry
Class Rings
Programs
Prom Favors
Cups, Medals, Trophies
American Legion Jewelry
G. W. Class Rings
L. G. BALFOUR CO.
204 International Bldg., 2nd Floor
1319 F St. N. W.
S. O. Ford, Mgr. NAt. 1045

In the SPOTLIGHT
★ From Noon ★
For smart, intimate, entertaining young Washington selecta—
RAINBOW Room
RESERVATIONS—FREDDY District 2600
MEYER DAVIS MUSIC
DANCING
From Noon.
Cocktail Dancing 5 to 7
(Sat. 4:30-6:30)
(No Cover or Minimum Except Saturday After 9. Minimum $1.00)
Delicious 7 Course Dinner in Main Dining Room, $1.00
Tom COLLINS 30¢
Old Fashioned 30¢
The HAMILTON
Washington's Only Completely Air-Conditioned Hotel
Running ice water in every room
14th & K Sts. N. W.
Richard S. Butler, Mgr.

Press Convention Program

Friday, November 15

8:30-9:30 a.m.—Registration, Publications Office, 2016 H St., Second floor.

9:30—General Assembly, Corcoran Hall, Room 10.
Greeting, Howard Ennes, director of the Association.
Address of Welcome, Dr. William C. Johnstone Jr., dean of the Junior College, The George Washington University.
Speakers:
Dr. Joy E. Morgan, Editor, the NEA Journal, director of Publications, the National Education Association.
Bryan Morse, promotion manager, The Washington Herald.
Business meeting, conducted by Hudson Wells, 1934-35 president of the Association. Nomination of officers. Announcements.

11:30—Conducted Tour of The University, viewing of special exhibits, convention pictures, etc.

12:00 noon—General Assembly, Biological Sciences Building, Room 101.
Speakers:
Eddy Gilmore, The Washington Daily News.
Rod Thomas, The Evening Star.
Announcements.

1:30 p.m.—Luncheon, 1819 G St.
Speakers:
Douglas Bement, member of the Committee on Publications, Assistant Professor of English, The George Washington University, toastmaster.
Dean John R. Lapham, chairman of the Committee on Publications, Dean of the School of Engineering, The George Washington University.
Bob Considine, sports columnist, The Washington Herald.
Laura Vitray, Sunday editor, The Washington Post.

2:30—Group Meetings:
Editorial Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 11.
James Deto, editorial feature editor, The Washington Times. "Editing and Making-Up the Editorial Page."
Sports Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 12.
Garrett Waters, sports writer, The Washington Times. "General Sports Reporting."

3:15—Speaker: General Assembly, Corcoran Hall, Room 10.
W. D. Barkdull, general advertising manager, The Washington Times.

3:45—Group Meetings:
News Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 11.
Richard Peters, The Washington Daily News. "The Job of the Reporter."
Sports Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 12.
Richard McCann, sports columnist, The Washington Daily News. "Sports Feature-Writing."

4:30—Reception for the delegates, Columbian House, 708 21st St.
Sponsored by Gamma Eta Zeta, women's honorary journalistic sorority.
Hosts: Dean Henry Grattan Doyle of Columbian College, The George Washington University.
Mrs. Vinnie Giffen Barrows, director of women's personnel guidance.
Presidents of student organizations.

6:00—Dinner, Loyd's Cafeteria, 1819 G St.

8:00—Delegates attend the Tulsa-George Washington University football game at Griffith Stadium as guests of the Athletic Department.

10:30-1:30—Delegates will be guests of The George Washington Student Council at the dance, following the football game, at the Washington Hotel.

Saturday, November 16

9:30 a. m.—General Assembly, Biological Sciences Building, Room 101.
Speakers:
W. K. Hutchinson, chief of the Capitol Staff, International News Service.
Shirley Povich, sports columnist, The Washington Post.
Voting for the Association's officers.
Announcements.

11:00—Tour of The Washington Post plant.

12:30—Group Meetings:
News Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 11.
Robert C. Albright, political writer, The Washington Post. "Political Reporting."
Sports Staff: Corcoran Hall, Room 12.
John Vosburgh, sports writer, The Washington Post. "Reporting High School Sports."

1:30—Quill and Scroll—Quill-Clique Luncheon, Western Presbyterian Church, H St.
Greeting, Everett H. Woodward, president, The George Washington University chapter, Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalistic fraternity, and Olivia Nixon, president of Gamma Eta Zeta, woman's honorary journalistic fraternity.
Welcomes by Quill and Scroll and Quill-Clique representatives.
Address, Dean Henry Grattan Doyle, grand national president, Pi Delta Epsilon.
"Trials of a Country Editor", a one-act play, presented by the Cue and Curtain dramatic club of The George Washington University.

3:00—Group Meetings:.
News Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 11.
Charter Heslep, The Washington Daily News. "The Role of the Newspaper in Influencing Public Opinion."
Business Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 12.
Emmett Deady, The Lynchburg Engraving Co. "Advertising Engraving Problems."

3:45—Group Meetings:
News Staff: Corcoran Hall, Room 11.
Martha Strayer, The Washington Daily News. "Reporting from the Woman's Point of View".

4:15—Group Meetings:
News Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 11.
John Jay Daly, The Evening Star. "Special Feature Writing."
Business Staffs: Corcoran Hall, Room 12.
Lester Gates, The Washington Daily News. "Advertising Layouts, Their Preparation and Use."

4:45—Group Meetings:
John Madigan, the Associated Press "Making-up Problems".

8:00—Closing Banquet:
Toastmaster, Prof. Willard Hayes Yeager, The George Washington University.
Speakers:
Sir Willmott Lewis, Washington Correspondent, The London Times.
Ray Tucker, Washington correspondent, McClure Syndicate.
Howard Parrish, business manager, The Washington Daily News.
Announcement of awards, Howard Ennes, director of the Association.
Presentation of cups, Miss Eleanor Heller, editor of The Hatchet.
Presentation of keys and certificates of award and membership, the Director.

Cue and Curtain To Present Play At Press Lunch

"Trials of a Country Editor," a one-act play on newspaper life, will be presented by Cue and Curtain at the Scholastic Press Association luncheon at the Western Presbyterian Church, 19th and H Sts., Saturday at 1:30 p. m.

Edward Stevlingson, as the editor, heads the cast which includes Garth Edwards, junior editor; Arthur Hemmelford, Mr. Toetaster; and Don Wilburn, John Smith. Joe Rubenstein and Jerome Gottlieb portray farmers, and Maxine Kahn plays the role of Penelope Pirate.

Rehearsals will be held this week. The playlet is under the direction of Maxine Kahn.

Rousers Planning New Card Tricks

The Rousers Club is planning a special exhibition of designs for the Tulsa football game Friday night, the last game this season at which designs will be made, according to Everett Strandell, president.

Designs will be made of the names of every senior member on the George Washington football team in addition to several special formations. Further plans will be made tomorrow night at the Rousers Club meeting.

Forum Offers Merrick Play

(Continued from Page 1)

family's relations are rather strained, especially because of the presence of Mrs. Lee, whom Mrs. Mason regards as a burden, but for whom Mr. Mason feels a great obligation.

Mrs. Mason secretly writes for pamphlets concerning the old age pension provision under the Social Securities Act. The tension is relieved when it is discovered that Mrs. Lee will receive a pension of $30 a month according to the provisions of the Act.

Student Speakers Address Parties

(Continued from Page 1)

tion on campus was started Tuesday night with a program consisting entirely of student speakers of this University planned.

Although no mobilization was held here Friday, at both American and Howard University demonstrations were held. At American University, Chancellor Joseph M. M. Gray sanctioned the demonstration, which proved to be quiet and peaceful. At Howard University, however, intense excitement prevailed as R. O. T. C. students heckled and booed speakers.

2-Day Conclave Features Prominent Speakers

Gilmore, Heslep, Vitray, Considine, Hutchinson Talk

(Continued from Page 1)

Sunday editor of The Washington Post, will speak.

Group Meetings

Friday afternoon the first of a series of group meetings designed to afford an opportunity for delegates to question leaders of the discussion groups as to their own particular problems will be held.

Editorial staffs, meeting in Corcoran 11, will hear James Deto, editorial feature editor of The Washington Times, discuess "Editing and Making-up the Editorial Page". Garrett Waters, Washington Times sports writer, will review sports reporting to sports writers in Corcoran 12.

Sales Presentation Explained

W. D. Barkdull, general advertising manager of The Washington Times, will demonstrate the sales presentation used by his staff at a general assembly of the convention in Corcoran 10 at 3:15.

News staffs will hear Richard Peters of the editorial staff of The Washington Daily News discussing "The Job of the Reporter" in Corcoran 11 at 3:45. At the same time sports staffs in Corcoran 12 will listen to Richard McCann, sports columnist of The Washington Daily News, talking on "Sports Feature-writing".

Women Sponsor Reception

Henry G. Doyle, dean of Columbian College, and Mrs. Barrows will be hosts to the convention at a reception sponsored by Gamma Eta Zeta, women's honorary journalistic sorority, in Columbian House at 4:30.

Presidents of leading campus organizations, the editors of The Hatchet, and the director of the convention will be in the receiving line.

A dinner for the delegates will be held at 1819 G St. at 6 p. m., following which the convention will go to Griffith Stadium to attend the football game between Tulsa and George Washington Universities. A special series of demonstrations by the University Band and cheering section will be held in recognition of the convention.

Delegates Guests at Dance

After the game, delegates to the convention and members of both teams will be guests of the Student Council at the Tulsa-George Washington dance at the Washington Hotel.

Out of town delegates will be provided proper chaperonage and lodging over Friday night at sorority and fraternity houses.

Saturday's program will be opened with a general assembly in the Biological Sciences Building, room 101, when the convention will hear W. K. Hutchinson, chief of the Capitol staff of the International News Service, and Shirley Povich, sports columnist for The Washington Post.

Tour of The Post

At 11 o'clock delegates will be taken on a tour of the plant of The Washington Post.

Returning from the newspaper plant tour, the convention will divide into group meetings. News staffs will hear Robert C. Albright, political writer for The Washington Post, judge of the individual news-writing contest, and former editor of The Hatchet, speak on "Political Reporting" and discuss the preparation high school and college journalism gives prospective newspaper people.

Sports Reporting Discussed

John Vosburgh, spotrs writer for The Washington Post, will discuss "Reporting High School Sports" in Corcoran 12 during the same period.

Sponsored by the McKinley and Roosevelt chapters of Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, and the Quill-Clique Journalism Society at Central High School, delegates will attend a luncheon at the Western Presbyterian Church at 1:30.

Doyle Speaks

Representatives from the high school organizations will welcome the convention and Dean Doyle, grand national president of Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalistic fraternity, will speak. Olivia Nixon, president of Gamma Eta Zeta, and Everett Woodward, president of Pi Delta Epsilon, will greet the delegates.

"Trials of a Country Editor," a one-act newspaper play directed by Maxine Kahn, will be presented by Cue and Curtain following the luncheon.

Training Class for Hatchet Staff

Saturday afternoon's program, designed to be as constructive as possible and as training classes for The Hatchet staff, will include five groups of discussions.

News staffs will meet in Corcoran 11 at 3 o'clock to hear Charter Heslep, reporter for The Washington Daily News, who identified more than 400 congressmen during the Utility Holding Company Bill vote last year for the Scripps-Howard papers, discuss "The Role of the Newspaper in Influencing Public Opinion."

Deady Talks on Engraving

At 3 o'clock in Corcoran 12, Emmett Deady of the Lynchburg Engraving Company will talk on "Advertising Engraving Problems" to business staffs.

At 3:45 in Corcoran 11 Martha Strayer, feature writer for The Washington Daily News, will talk on "Reporting From the Women's Point of View."

At 4:15 John Daly, feature writer for The Evening Star, will talk on "Special Feature Writing" before news staffs in Corcoran 11.

Business Staffs Meet

Business staffs, meeting in Corcoran 12 at 4:15 o'clock, will discuss with Lester M. Gates of The Washington Daily News, former business manager of The Hatchet, "Advertising Layouts, Their Preparation and Use."

Copyreader Speaks

He will be followed at 4:15 p. m. by John T. Madigan of the Associated Press, former editor of The Hatchet, speaking on "Making-Up Problems!"

Prof. Willard H. Yeager of the Public Speaking Department of the University will be toastmaster at the closing banquet of the convention at Wesley Hall at 8 p. m.

Prominent Speakers

Sir Willmott Lewis of The London Times, Ray Tucker of the McClure Syndicate, and Howard Parrish of The Washington Daily News will be guest speakers.

Announcement of awards and presentation of individual writing keys and certificates of award and membership will be made by Ennes.

Eleanor A. Heller, editor of The Hatchet, will present the cups to the best Metropolitan Area and States Area papers entered in the contest.

Mrs. Barrows Attends Conclave

Mrs. Vinnie G. Barrows, Director of Women's Personnel Guidance, attended the annual convention of the Regional Association of Deans of Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia, held in Williamsburg, Va., last weekend.

Press Association Officers Back

Photo by Shaw Hall Matthews

These high school delegates were elected officers to last year's press convention, following a two day conclave. Seated, Hudson Wells (left), Virginia Clapp. Standing, Owen Chappelle (left), Robert Garrison.

Delegates See Paper Exhibit

Stewart Holds Journalistic Display in Columbian House.

Displays prepared by Brooke Stewart, exhibits manager of the Press Association, will cover every important phase of scholastic journalism in relation to metropolitan newspaper work, according to Howard Ennes, director of the convention.

The exhibits will be on view in the Columbian House and will include seven major divisions. A display of general journalistic literature will be headed by the Linotype News, copies of which will be distributed to convention delegates. A series of posters will show model makeup for school newspapers and general custom in journalistic makeup, with illustration by a series of exemplary news and editorial pages.

Another display will demonstrate types and examples of cartoons in collegiate newspapers, while a poster will list a bibliography of over 75 books on journalism and allied subjects. Together with this there will be a collection of 20 representative books in the same field.

A collection of engraving cuts and mats will also feature the exhibit. Finally there will be a photographic history of the construction of a newspaper from the writing and editing of the news to distribution.

Individual Entries Will Be Judged

(Continued from Page 1)

mer sports editor of The Hatchet; C. C. Harvey, editor of The Student Leader and director of the division of high school journalism of the National Education Association, and John Madigan of the Associated Press, formerly editor of The Hatchet.

Individual news-writing entries will be judged by a committee of five judges. They are Robert C. Albright, political writer for The Washington Post, judge of the individual news-story contest; Bob Considine, sports columnist for The Washington Herald, sports story judge; Don Craig, dramatic critic for the Washington Daily News, judge of columns; John Jay Daly, feature writer of The Evening Star, judge of the feature story contest, and James Deto, editorial feature editor of The Washington Times, judge of the editorial contest.

"Camels don't get your Wind"

FAMOUS GOLFERS SAY

CRAIG WOOD (right)—Tommy Armour—Helen Hicks—Gene Sarazen—Bill Mehlhorn—Denny Shute—Willie Macfarlane!

Their names sound a roll call of tense moments that have made golfing history, when prime "condition" and healthy nerves were at a premium. All are outspoken in their preference for Camels.

"Camels are so smooth and mild they never affect my wind," says Craig Wood, pictured at the right as he paused to smoke a Camel. Willie Macfarlane adds: "Camels are mild. They don't get my wind." Miss Helen Hicks brings up the feminine viewpoint. "There's a delicacy of flavor in Camels that appeals to women. Camels never interfere with one's wind." And Denny Shute says: "I switched to Camels years ago. I smoke them constantly, without upsetting my nerves or disturbing my wind."

You'll Like Their Mildness Too!

Such experiences with Camels can be matched right among your own friends. You'll like Camels too. Camels are made from costlier tobaccos. They never tire your taste.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS!

● Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS ...Turkish and Domestic... than any other popular brand.

(Signed) R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY
Winston-Salem, N. C.

TUNE IN! CAMEL CARAVAN with WALTER O'KEEFE DEANE JANIS • TED HUSING • GLEN GRAY AND THE CASA LOMA ORCHESTRA • Tuesday and Thursday—9 p.m. E.S.T., 8 p.m. C.S.T., 9:30 p.m. M.S.T., 8:30 p.m. P.S.T.—over WABC-Columbia Network.

So Mild! YOU CAN SMOKE ALL YOU WANT

In every-day life, physical fitness plays a big part too. Life's more fun when you feel good. So mark what champions and star athletes say: Camels don't get their wind and don't ruffle their nerves. That's real mildness. Try Camels yourself, and share in the enjoyment of Camel's mellow flavor that means so much to others.

© 1935 R. J. Reynolds Tob. Co.

Frosh Gridders Play Only Game of Season Saturday.

Hatchet Sports

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1935

Fine Prospects Shown In Swimming Practices To Date.

Colonials Renew Ancient Rivalry With Tulsa Oilers

Open Tilt Expected Friday

Colonials Pointing for Second Win Over Golden Hurricanes.

Oklahomans Lost to Southern Methodist By Only Two Touchdowns.

IN what promises to be the outstanding and closest game of the year, the Colonials will meet the Tulsa Oilers in their sixth tilt Friday night at the Griffith Stadium.

The Golden Hurricanes from Oklahoma have won two games, lost four, and tied one; and the Buff and Blue has won four and lost three this season. As both have very open offenses, a spectacular game is anticipated in this annual intersectional classic. In their previous engagements, the Oilers have won four, and the Colonials have won one, that last year.

Lose Opener

After opening the season with a disappointing 9-0 loss to the Central Teachers, the Tulsans braced and held Southern Methodist Mustangs and Texas Christian to two touchdowns each, S. M. U. winning in the last period, 13-0; and Texas Christian coming out ahead, 14-0. This tends to show Tulsa as a good defensive team, but only a fair offensive team, which is contrary to the usual Henderson-coached outfits. The Tulsans usually have an extremely radical offense with passes likely to fly at any point. It was this characteristic which enabled George Washington to sink the Oklahomans last year when "Red" Rathjen intercepted a Tulsa pass deep in the Hurricane's territory to amble over for the score.

Tulsa showed a skeleton of an offense when they won their first game against Washburn, 19-6 and followed this up by defeating Oklahoma Aggies, 13-0. The Oilers rose to the heights to stave off a strong Kansas State team which had held Nebraska to a 0-0 deadlock, and tie State 13-13. In their last game, Tulsa came out on the short end against an eccentric Centenary eleven, 22-0. It still has to play Drake and Arkansas after the Colonial game.

17 Veterans Return

Though hard hit by the loss of seven lettermen, Coaches Henderson and Vik still have 17 men from last year. The greatest loss was that of "Skeeter" Berry, who was one of the best backs to ever perform for the Black and Gold. Rudy Procahaska, star center, also left via the sheepskin route.

The Oilers are determined to start their winning streak anew against the Colonials. After winning four straight, "Red" Rathjen's touchdown on an intercepted pass and Deming's placement kick gave the Tulsans a 10-0 setback.

Captain and fullback Tack Dennis will lead the visitors into Washington. Two All-American prospects who will do their best to make life miserable for George Washington Friday are Les Chapman, tackle, and Ham Harmon, center. The rest of the line is experienced with the exception of the ends. To replace Berry, "Gloomy Gus" Henderson has alternated Howard Clark, Joe Kahl, and Justin Enochs

(Continued on Page 6)

Grid Schedule

G. W., 12; Emory and Henry, 0.
G. W., 0; Alabama, 39.
G. W., 33; Catawba, 0.
G. W., 15; West Virginia, 7.
G. W., 6; Wake Forest, 7.
G. W., 0; Rice, 41.
G. W., 53; Davis-Elkins, 7.
Friday night G. W. vs. Tulsa at Griffith Stadium, 8:15.
Nov. 28—G. W. vs. North Dakota (Thanksgiving).

Frosh Squad Opposes "Y" In N. Jersery

THE Colonial Cubs, Champions of the Griffith Stadium Pillar-to-Post Conference, will invade the metropolis of Kearney Point, N. J., to meet the Kearney Point "Y" eleven. The game, to be played on Saturday, will be the first game played by a George Washington freshman team since 1930.

The Kearney Point club, whose season highlight was a victory over the Temple yearlings, will present an experienced and powerful eleven, the Colonial Cubs being very much the under-dogs in pregame predictions.

The frosh however, will be well equipped to meet the Kearney aggregation at any type play, the Cubs having used every system from the Notre Dame to the Tulsa spread against the Varsity.

Coach Jean Sexton is anticipating a spectacular battle between his proteges and the Kearney club. Kearney has a lineup studded with former college and high school stars, and has cut a wide swath in the ranks of high school and yearling elevens in the east.

Vic Sampson, kicking and passing ace of the Cubs, has recovered from a broken nose incurred early in the season, and will lend his talented toe to the Frosh defense.

The probable line-up: L. E., Mickey Innes; L. T., Bill Collins; L. G., Bernie Kotulak; C., Quinn Collins; R. G., Hal Schiering; R. T., Stan Gerbowiz; R. E., Floyd Berry; L. H., Vic Sampson; R. H., Pony Nicksick; F. B., "Benny" Benenson; Q. B., Bob Faris.

Sherfy Opposes Stolar In Intramural Tennis

Ray Sherfy and Morris Stolar are scheduled to crash racquets this week in the semi-finals of the Intramural tennis tourney.

The winner will meet Spencer Howell, member of last year's varsity, who has reached the finals with the loss of but five games in three matches.

Golf Title Retained By S.N.

Disqualification of Craig McKee Puts S. A. E. Out of Tourney.

Snakes Play Consistent Golf, Shooting 326; K. S. Second.

DISQUALIFICATION of Craig McKee, Sigma Alpha Epsilon player, on the basis of his varsity letter earned with the G. W. golf team several seasons ago, gave Sigma Nu fraternity its third successive golf cup Sunday in the annual inter-fraternity golf tourney played over the National Women's Country Club course. With McKee's 69 leading the way, Sigma Alpha Epsilon held a team total of 320 and would have won the title by a comfortable six stroke margin under the Sigma Nu total of 326.

Twenty-one strokes back of Sigma Nu came Kappa Sigma's four with a 347 team total to take second honors. Third place went to Acacia fraternity with a 351 gross.

Hurd Gets Cup

McKee's disqualification gave the cup emblematic of low gross honors to William Hurd, Delta Tau Delta golfer, who turned in consistent scores all the way around the course, finishing with a 73. James Swindells, captain of the victorious Sigma Nu team, placed second with a 76. This cup, secured from the Sports Center through the efforts of I. Ray Howard, Interfraternity athletic chairman, is to be awarded each year to the medal man of the annual tourney. The name of the winner will be engraved on the cup and any person winning it in any three years will be awarded permanent possession.

Ten of the twelve fraternities affiliated with the Interfraternity Council placed teams on the field. Behind the three leaders the other teams competing finished in the following order: Kappa Alpha 368, Sigma Chi 383, Delta Tau Delta 393, Theta Delta Chi 400, Theta Upsilon Omega 400, and Phi Sigma Kappa 442. Tau Kappa Epsilon and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternities forfeited, failing to put teams in the field.

Hole by hole scores of the four leading golfers shows the leaders

(Continued on Page 6)

Forethought---Fought and Afterthought

Colonials Beat D. E. 53-7

Scoring Mark Tied as Buff Runs Over Scarlet Senators.

Leemans Scores Three Times, Jenkins Twice in One-sided Fray.

DUPLICATING last week's spectacular offense, the Colonials swamped a game, but futile, Davis-Elkins eleven before about 8,000 fans at Griffith Stadium Friday night. The final score was 53-7, the largest point-total amassed by a George Washington team since 'way back in 1931.

All the members of the Colonial backfield romped through the Davis-Elkins defense with the freedom of a referee. "Tuffy" Leemans and Herb Reeves dominated the ground-gaining activities, "Tuffy" reeling off gains of twenty or more yards time after time. Reeves, playing his usual fine defensive game, managed to lug the ball for an average of fifteen yards per try. In addition to the ground attack, the Colonials resorted to an effective passing attack, completing a series of long passes for a total gain of over two hundred yards.

Score in First Minute

The Colonials struck swiftly and deadly, scoring in the first minute of the opening quarter. On the third play of the game, "Tuffy" Leemans threw a beautiful 40-yard pass to Herb Reeves, who romped over the goal line unmolested. Deming's attempt for the conversion was good, making the score 7-0.

Exactly eight plays thereafter, Leemans and company produced another six-pointer on a fine bit of passing along with some nice gains by "Tuffy," who skirted the Davis-Elkins flanks almost at will. Leemans lugged the ball over from the two-yard line to make it 13-0. Up to this point only four minutes of the game had passed.

After an exchange of punts, the Pixleemen set about to increase their lead. On successive gains of fifteen, fifteen, and six yards, Leemans toted the ball to the D. E. one-yard marker, from which point Howard "Nig" Tihila, who had replaced Reeves, plunged over on a fake reverse for the score, only to have the play called back for an offside penalty. On the next play a pass from Leemans to George Jenkins was complete over the goal line for the score. Deming's placekick was good, making it 20-0 as the quarter ended.

D. E. Scores Once

The only real offensive threat of the Davis-Elkins team came at the

(Continued on Page 6)

SPORT AXE

By Sid Carroll

HERE'S that man again—"Gloomy Gus" Henderson with his Tulsa University Oilers. They'll be in town this week for a game with our Colonials at Griffith Stadium Friday night.

It will mark the sixth time these two teams, G. W. and Tulsa, have met on the gridiron. Tulsa was victorious in the first four meetings, but the Colonials overcame "ole man" Jinx and the "Golden Hurricane" to triumph, 10-0, last season. The game was termed by many who have been familiar with the "feud" since its beginning in '30 as the "best yet". As for defensive play it was a near masterpiece.

Both Tulsa and G. W. have been "pointing" to this game each year and are always keyed to a high C as game-time approached. And this year should be no exception. G. W. has experienced only a fair season and Tulsa has been no world beater. However, this will not take away any of the color or setting of their battle.

The Colonials are all set to turn the "Golden Hurricane" into a mild summer breeze and throw "ole man" Jinx, who was around for four seasons, out on his ear for good and for all.

With the Colonials coming right back at the Tulsans' spread formations and tricky offensive plays, the game should be one well worth watching. I'm going to call this the most intriguing game this season right here and now.

After Friday night, don't say I didn't tell you!

The varsity basketball team will play two games this season in the big Newark Arena, at Newark, N. J. The Arena has a capacity of about 15,000 and for the past few years doubleheaders have been scheduled to attract large crowds. On Christmas Day the Colonials will play Villanova and on Feb. 22 will play the Long Island University five as the feature games of twin bills. The Colonials are particularly anxious to take a crack at Long Island away from its small home court and get even for a couple back losses.

NOW that a football game has been scheduled for the freshmen gridders to be played against the Kearney Point, N. J., Y. M. C. A., more games ought to be scheduled. A four or five game schedule each season would not only give the coaches a better line on the yearlings, but would liven the players' interest and spirit. The players would look forward to a game every week or maybe every other week in much the same light that the varsity looks to its games from week to week. It would also help

(Continued on Page 6)

Tulsa Hurricane "Blows" In From 2,000 Mile Trip

By Laymond Crump
(Sports Editor, The Tulsa Collegian)

Tulsa, Okla.—Climaxing a long trip which has taken them 2,000 miles away from school, the University of Tulsa football party will roll into Washington Friday morning, where they will engage the Colonials in a grid tilt.

This week, following the Centenary game, the Tulsa Golden Hurricane will be encamped at Swaverly prep school in Manassas, Va., where the playerrs are being tutored by W. E. Morris, jr., secretary of the athletic council and member of the English faculty of Tulsa University.

Although the "Hurricane," coached by Elmer C. (Gloomy Gus) Henderson, comes to Washington this year lacking the good seasonal record which has been theirs in past years, the squad has been improving with each game, and the 16 sophomores making the trip have seen enough service to make them experienced players.

Defeated in the first game on the 1935 schedule by Central Teachers College of Edmond, Oklahoma, 9 to 0, the Tulsans displayed a great line against Southern Methodist and Texas Christian the following Saturdays, losing 14-0 and 13-0.

Since these games, the Hurricane has rolled over Washburn of Topeka, Kansas, 19 to 6; Oklahoma A. & M., 13 to 0; and battled a surprising Kansas State team to a 13-13 tie. Saturday Tulsa lost to Centenary, 22-0. These games showed that Coach Henderson has done a good job of teaching football to his inexperienced backs.

Tulsa's newest sophomore sensation, Tudor Jones, is being heralded as the smartest field general ever to call signals for the Golden Hurricane. Jones is smart, and passes with great accuracy.

Tack Dennis, captain and fullback of the Hurricane, has been the victim of injuries in every game this season. But each time he recovered in time to give a masterful exhibition of line plunging and kicking.

Lester "Red" Chapman, giant tackle, and Ham Harmon, center who played 60 minutes of football against the Kansas Aggie aggregation two weeks ago, are two players whom Tulsa fans are considering as All-American prospects.

Last year, the Colonials broke the "jinx" which Tulsa teams had over them for four years, winning 10 to 0, when Harry Deming booted a 20-yard field goal and "Red" Rathjen intercepted a pass on the 30-yard marker and scored unmolested.

When the two squads meet Friday, neither will be defending a great seasonal record. But winning the game will aid the prestige of either team no little, and both coaches are desirous of victory for their charges.

Cage Schedule Is Completed

Randolph-Macon, Oglethorpe Added to List of Foes.

Two more home games have been added to the basketball schedule, making a total of 21 games to be played by the varsity. On January 6 the Colonials meet Oglethorpe University, of Georgia, and on Feb. 10 Randolph-Macon will be opposed.

The varsity started practice last week and yesterday got down to work in real earnest. The complete schedule:

December 9—Shenandoah.
12—Ohio State, at Columbus.
13—Cincinnati, there.
16—Richmond, there.
25—Villanova, at Newark, N. J.
January 4—Wake Forest, there.
6—Oglethorpe.
10—Elon.
13—Richmond.
14—Villanova.
20—Emory and Henry.
27—Ohio State.
February 3—Geneva.
5—Davis-Elkins.
10—Randolph-Macon.
14—Davis-Elkins, there.
15—West Virginia, at Morgantown.
17—Westminster.
20—St. Johns, at Brooklyn.
22—Long Island, at Newark, N. J.
24—Wake Forest.

Swim Squad Prospects Good

"I am glad to report that the outlook for the present Colonial Swimming Team is good," was Coach Max Rote's announcement, made after the tryouts held last Friday, when twenty-nine prospects turned out.

The prominent swimmers of the Buff and Blue Varsity Squad are: Captain Henry Vonder Bruegge, 50 and 100 yard dash; Beverley Carter, 220 and 440 yard; Benjamin "Dan" Catchings, 200 and 440 yard; and Ashward and Vedder, both fancy divers.

Promising members of the Freshman Squad are: Joe La Salle, 50 and 100 yard dash; Bill Tarbett, diver and breast stroke; Eddy Thacker, back stroke, and John Marshall, diver.

Captain Vonder Bruegge is on the Varsity grid squad, but will soon be available for swimming practice. Beverley Carter, former Southern Conference 440-yard champion is from Duke University. Vedder was on the team two years ago and shows great possibilities.

The first Varsity meet will be with Amherst College from Massachusetts here at the Shoreham Hotel on Dec. 20. The first Freshman meet will be with Central High School at Central High on Dec. 6.

All-American Mention to Leemans

For the second successive year Alphonse "Tuffy" Leemans, G. W.'s ace back, has been given an All American rating by the All-America Board of Football.

In a copyrighted article in the Sunday Herald, Christy Walsh named Leemans, along with nine other stars from all parts of the country, on the Board's list of possible All-Americans. Ten stars are named each week, with no one man being named twice during the season, and from this list the All-America Board, headed by Christy Walsh, picks its All-America team, considered by many as the most authoritative team in the country.

Leemans

Walsh quotes Bernie Harter, Sports Editor of the Washington Herald, as saying: "Leemans ran Rice kick-offs back for a total of 114 yards; gained 68 yards carrying the ball; did most of the passing; caught four himself, and played a brilliant defensive game." Then he added: "Leemans would star on any eleven in the country."

The other nine would-be All-Americans who were named along with Leemans are: Shakespeare, Notre Dame; Brandstatter, Michigan State; Moscrip, Stanford; Smith, Ohio State; Fitzsimmons, Georgia Tech; Ray, Dartmouth; Thompson, Minnesota; Franco, Fordham, and Lutz, California.

Interfraternity Court Play Opens Next Week

Interfraternity basketball competition will open the week of the 17th, and will continue for several weeks thereafter. November 17 has been set as the deadline for the submitting of entries to I. Ray Howard, interfraternity athletics chairman, at the T. K. E. house.

Phi Sigma Kappa, last year's champions, will present a strong aggregation in an attempt to regain the cup, so hotly contested last year.

GOOD To Eat

BREAKFAST
LUNCH
DINNER

Miss Holt's
FOOD SHOP
Corner 20th and G

Rice, Alabama On Top Again

Owls Whip Arkansas, 20-7, In Southwest Conference Tilt

Its getting monotonous; Rice and Alabama won again, last Saturday.

Led by "Jumping Jawn" McCauley and "Bounding Bill" Wallace, Rice romped to a decisive 20-7 victory over Arkansas, in a Southwest Conference game. "Jawn" scored twice in the second quarter, on runs of 50 and 20 yards, while Wallace waltzed 26 yards for the final marker.

Clemson was powerless before the scintillating attack of Alabama's Gilgrow, Rhordanz and Angelich, who ran, passed, and kicked the Tide to their first home victory of the year, 33-0. Riley Smith (remember him?) was there, too, sneaking over from the Clemson 6-yard-line to score the first six points.

Vacation

Send Your BAGGAGE Home by

RAILWAY EXPRESS

No need to burden yourself with the transportation of trunks, baggage and personal effects at vacation time... send them all home by Railway Express.

Here's the way... merely telephone Railway Express and we'll call for the shipments — whisk them away on fast passenger trains, swiftly and safely to destination. You take your train home with peace of mind, knowing your baggage will be home almost as soon as you are. Rates surprisingly low; two receipts—one at each end—insure safe handling and delivery.

After vacation, we'll bring your baggage back again, eliminating all worry, trouble and unnecessary expense.

For service or information telephone

Second and Eye Streets N.E. NAtional 1200
Branch Office: 1414 F Street N.W., Washington, D. C. NAtional 1200

● TUNE IN ON THE RAILWAY EXPRESS NEWS PARADE Every week from the following stations: WEEI • WOR • WRC WLS • KWK • WDSU WFAA • WGST • KYA KMX • KSTP • KOMO WBAL • KOIL. Watch for local announcements

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY INC.
NATION-WIDE RAIL-AIR SERVICE

Physicists To Hear Teller On Neutrons

Visiting Professor to Be Principal Speaker at Colloquium

Dr. Edward Teller, Hungarian theoretical physicist, who is visiting professor of theoretical physics, will address the Washington Colloquium of Physics on "The Theory of Neutron Capture" tomorrow at 8 p. m. in H-106.

The Washington Colloquium of Physics is a symposium of physicists which, prior to this year, held weekly meetings at the Bureau of Standards. The meeting tomorrow night is one of its regular Wednesday night meetings which are now held in the new Biological Science building.

Dr. Teller's talk follows that of Dr. Haydenburg of the Bureau of Terrestrial Magnetism on experimental neutron capture, which was delivered last Wednesday.

Neutrons are neutral particles in the nuclei of atoms. When positive electrons are added to them they become protons. Since elements are composed of atoms with given numbers of protons surrounded by definite numbers of negative electrons, the theory of the capture and separation of neutrons involves certain types of radio-activity and the transmutation of elements.

Tulsa Plays G. W. Here Friday Night

(Continued from Page 5)

at half. Tudor Jones is quarter.

The Colonials are just as determined to maintain and nurse their newborn winning streak against Tulsa. It seems that the Pixieemen are beginning to regard the Tulsa game as the season's climax and thus this tilt is viewed by the present issue of the Buff. Heartened by the success of their spread plays and passing attack against Rice and Davis-Elkins, the Colonials expect to shoot the works against Tulsa.

With Leemans on the sending and receiving end of these passes (not the same passes) the Colonials have a new phase in their attack. Variation off the spread promises to treat the fans to a thrill-filled evening. The end plays especially worked well against Davis-Elkins and it won't be surprising to see them used often against Tulsa.

Jenkins is the pass heaver when Leemans is on the line for the spread formation.

If Ben Plotnicki has recuperated for this contest his able arm will wing many passes down the field. Pete Yurwitz, who is improving with each game, will also be on the receiving end. "Red" Rathjen will be able to start after missing the last game because of injuries.

The backfield will consist of Leemans, Reeves, Jenkins, and the only plunging fullback since Kriemelmyer, the newcomer to the regular team "Nig" Tihila. His addition greatly enhances the Buff's chance for victory as he does his best work when two or three yards are needed for a first down; then he shoves his 200 pounds through the center for the necessary yardage.

Probable starting line-ups:

Tulsa		G. W.
Baze	LE	Hanken
Kennon	LT	Deming
Collins	LG	Harrison
Harmon	C	Rathjen
Cooper	RG	Kolker
Chapman	RT	Prather
Hays	RE	Yurwitz
Jones	QB	Leemans
McLane	RHB	Reeves
Kahl	LHB	Jenkins
Dennis	FB	Tihila

Sport Axe

(Continued from Page 5)

take some of the matter of course and drudgery out of the scrimmages with the varsity.

Johnnie Baker, former G. W. star quarterback, has the edge over his former teammates, Hardy Pearce, Lee Carlin and Johnny Fenlon, this season, his first as mentor of the Washington-Lee High School eleven at Ballston, Va. Baker's team has lost only one game to date, while winning five.

The "Little Generals", as W.-L. is commonly referred to, romped over Lee Carlin's National Training School proteges, 33-0; beat Hardy Pearce's Central High eleven, which is well on its way to the District Inter-High School championship, 7-0, and last Friday, to make it unanimous, beat Johnny Fenlon's Fredericksburg, Va., High Yellowjackets, 21-0, with a spirited last half drive.

The loss to Luray came in the last five minutes of play. W.-L. had a comfortable lead and Johnnie yanked his first-string backfield. Then Luray went to work to score two touchdowns and win the game.

Spanish Club Will Meet

The Spanish Club will meet Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 8 p. m. in Columbian House. According to Alba Meadows, president of the club, a guest speaker from the Pan American Union, to be announced later, will be present. The discussion will be conducted in Spanish and all University students interested in Spanish are welcome.

What . . . Where . . . When

Tomorrow

American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Bureau of Standards, 8 p. m.

Washington Colloquim of Physics, H-106, 8 p. m.

Library Science Club, Columbian House, 8 p. m.

Swisher History Club, Columbian House, 8:30 p. m.

Thursday

Library Science Alumni Association, H-101, 8 p. m.

Saturday

Theta Tau Dinner, Hay-Adams House, 7:30 p. m.

Monday

Chemistry Club Weekly Symposium, Corcoran 37, 8 p. m.

Doyle To Speak On High School Language Study

Dean Henry G. Doyle, of Columbian College, will speak as a member of a panel at the meeting of the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association in St. Louis, Feb. 24.

The topic for discussion is "The Place of Foreign Language Study in an Integrated Secondary School Program."

Wilford Aiken, of Ohio State University, will be chairman of the meeting.

Sigma Nu Retains Frat Golf Title

(Continued from Page 5)

played consistent golf throughout. In the leading quartet but one seven was carded and but five sixes.

Scrutiny of the first four low totals shows a very good reason for Sigma Nu's success for the defending champions have a man, James Swindells, in the second position and another one, Baxter Davis, in a tie for third place.

Hole by hole scores of the first five low golfers were as follows:

Hurd	454	354	444	37
	444	354	543	36—73
Swindells	464	354	545	40
	553	244	544	36—76
Stewart	455	353	646	41
	475	342	554	39—80
Davis	644	453	643	39
	455	564	643	42—81
Sheiry	444	453	644	38
	455	753	545	43—81

Hole by hole scores of the other two members of the championship Sigma Nu team were:

Hess	555	455	554	43
	455	454	543	39—82
Nourod	596	444	644	46
	454	553	654	41—87

Players, other than those listed above, who turned in the sixteen lowest scores were: Rochelle 82, Jones 82, Pomeroy 83, Crampton 83, Knapp 84, Chipps 84, Cage 86, Siciliano 87, Garrett 88, and Knoop 90.

Dr. Ragatz To Address History Club Tomorrow

Dr. Lowell Ragatz will address members and guests of the Swisher History Club on "Mid-Victorian Imperialism", stressing the Italo-African situation tomorrow in Columbian House at 8:30 p. m.

Following the speech, there will be an open forum conducted by Doctor Ragatz.

Relations Club Hears Speech On Sanctions

George A. Finch Discusses League at Meeting Wednesday.

Dr. George A. Finch, secretary of the American Society of International Law, spoke before the International Relations Club last Wednesday on "The Operation of Sanctions under the League of Nations".

Doctor Finch pointed out that at present the question of whether a nation has violated the covenant of the League to such an extent that sanctions should be applied is determined by the League Council.

According to Doctor Finch, in controversies such as that between Italy and Ethiopia, the interested powers are more likely to be guided by political considerations than by a true sense of justice. He suggested that such questions could be more fairly considered in an impartial international court.

The talk was followed by a general discussion of sanctions among the members of the club.

In addition to his connection with the American Society of International Law, Doctor Finch is assistant secretary of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and managing editor of the American Journal of International Law.

Series Begun By Filipinos

The Philippinesian Club inaugurated a series of programs depicting aspects of Philippine cultural, political and economic life as its part in the celebration of the new Philippine Commonwealth, in Columbian House Sunday night.

Doroteo Vite, secretary of the club, announces that the Philippinesian Club extends an invitation to all University students to attend this series of programs "in which they will be given a chance to view the development of a people which the United States of America has so nobly helped to its feet."

Colonials Defeat Davis-Elkins, 53-7

(Continued from Page 5)

beginning of the second quarter. Taking advantage of a Colonial fumble deep in the Buff and Blue territory, the West Virginians pushed across their lone score. A pass from Pike to Tebor was completed to the G. W. five-yard stripe, and another aerial from the same Pike to Tebor, who made a beautiful catch, was good for a score. Pike's kick for the extra point went between the up-rights, making the score 20-7.

Leemans responded to this offensive threat with gains of twenty and fifty yards after the kickoff to bring the ball to the 15, where the D. E. line stiffened. Kendall's punt went out on the D. E. 35-yard line. From this point Leemans on two successive plays from spread formation carried the ball to the D. E. 12. A pass from Jenkins to "Tuffy," who made a spectacular catch, brought the ball to the one-yard line, from where Leemans plunged over to make it 26-7. Kolker's kick for the extra point was blocked.

The half ended shortly thereafter.

No Score in Third

Despite several nice gains by Leemans, Reeves, and Jenkins the Colonials failed to cross the goal line in the third period. However, in the fourth the Colonials gathered power, shoving the ball across the weakening West Virginian's goal line four times. A beautiful pass from Leemans to Kavalier opened the quarter, netting forty yards. From the eight yard Leemans counted from spread formation to make it 33-7, Deming again kicking the extra point.

From this point on touchdowns were as plentiful as the cold air in Griffith Stadium, the whole G. W. backfield romping up and down the field almost at will. In the melee, Jenkins, who played a bang-up game all the way, De Angelis, and Kavalier rang up six-pointers, bringing the total to an alarming 53-7.

STANDARD
ENGRAVING CO., INC.
Photo-Engraver
Line, Halftone, and Color Work
PRINTCRAFT BLDG.,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Rifle Squad Gets 27 More

Eight Varsity Members on Team; Wallace Is New Manager.

Twenty-seven prospective members of the rifle squad turned out last week. Of these there were three experienced Freshmen and eight non-experienced Freshmen. There were ten experienced Sophomores and Juniors and six non-experienced Sophomores out.

The more prominent Varsity members are: Mulligan, Martin, Gebhard, Wallace, Nash, Johnstons, Harlan, and Thomas. There are seven more positions open to complete the squad. These will be filled in by Coach Frank T. Parsons, Jr., from time to time up to February.

Dana Wallace was appointed manager by Coach Parsons last week. This is Wallace's second year here at the University where he is registered in the Civil Engineering School.

A new captain will be appointed for each contest by Coach Parsons when each one's possibilities are known.

Two possible but still tentative matches to be held before the Southern Atlantic League contests begin are those with the National Guards and with the Marines.

The period from November 4 to February 1 is to be a training period. There will be no dropping of any member from the squad until in January, unless of course, there is very poor shooting on any one's part.

RENT a Typewriter $3.00 per mo.
Any Standard Make
3 Months $7.50
Free Delivery No Deposit
Adding Machine $5 per Mo.up
TYPEWRITER SALES
& SERVICE COMPANY
TRANSPORTATION BLDG.
811 17th STREET, N.W.
FOR ANY TYPEWRITER SERVICE CALL NAT. 5666

Clara W. Herbert Of Public Library To Address Club

Clara W. Herbert, assistant librarian of the Public Library, will address the Library Science Club tomorrow night on the subject, "Our Profession, Past, Present, and Future".

The speech will be given at 8 o'clock in Columbian House. The Library Science Club, according to Leila Fern, president, is open to all students in the Library Science Division.

Frosh Debate Team Planned

The forming of a Freshman debating team for women will be discussed at a meeting of the women's debating squad, Thursday, in S-13 at 1:10 p. m.

According to Prof. Harold F. Harding, coach for the women's team, this innovation is designed to give freshmen women a chance to participate in practice debates.

Those members who have been on the debate team in past years will act as coaches for the new people. There will be debates given before Freshman assemblies, if present plans work, and if possible, radio debates will be inaugurated.

Prof. Henry G. Roberts has announced that either two or three women will be sent to the Eastern Atlantic Seaboard Conference debate, which takes place in February at the New Jersey College for Women, at New Brunswick, N. J.

CIRCLE THEATRE
2105 Penna. Ave.
"Home of the Mirror Screen"
TUES. & WED.—"Top Hat", Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers. America's favorite dance stars together again!
THURS. & FRI.—"Two for Tonite", Bing Crosby, Joan Bennett, Lynne Overman. Romance with music and Bing.
SAT.—"Here Comes Cookie", George Burns, Gracie Allen. The goofiest, grandest, gayest picture yet.
SUN. & MON.—"Special Agent", George Brent, Bette Davis, Ricardo Cortez. The first drama of the U. S. Treasury's courageous special agents.

Engineers Set Meeting, Tour Of Laboratory

Employees to Conduct Group Through Bureau of Standards.

The G. W. branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers will meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the Bureau of Standards.

After the meeting, the group will be conducted through the electrical instruments laboratory and the magnetic and photometric laboratories by Evert G. Bennett, William A. Roche, and Almon Spinks, who are employed at the Bureau.

A. C. Hutton of the Bureau will show some motion pictures of fire resistance tests, which include the destruction of a full size airplane hangar for the purpose of testing the relative value of several types of fire protection.

CAN'T SMOKE A PIPE?
THEN YOU NEVER SMOKED A
FILTER-COOLED
Frank MEDICO
(PATENTED)
This simple appearing yet amazing absorbent filter invention with Cellophane exterior and cooling mesh screen interior keeps juices and flakes in Filter and out of mouth.
Prevents tongue bite, raw mouth, wet heel, bad odor, frequent expectoration. No breaking in. Improves the taste and aroma of any tobacco.
LAYEST SHAPES
Don't be Misled by low price of
$1 FINEST BRIAR MONEY CAN BUY
UNHEARD OF VALUE
IDEAL GIFT!
RECOMMENDED BY MILLIONS OF USERS
The ONLY Filter in the World that Really Filters

Of course, I'm just getting them in case the boys should call—

They do say they're milder and taste better—and I've heard tell they satisfy

© 1935, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.